Blast Snarls Travel; Wind Damage Rises

Local Grade Buildings Closed Early; Classes Suspended in County

A bitter slashing wind propelling swirling snow literally blew winter back into Marion this morning for a surprise return visit

The thaw Tuesday swept away most of the signs of Monday s five-inch snowfall, indicating that winter weather might be saying goodbye for the season

That hope disappeared about 9 a m today, when another winter storm hit the area with 35 to 40 mile-an-hour winds giving tremendous impetus to the driving snow Conditions were so bad at times that both driving and walking became well-nigh impossible

City streets which were wet became slippery with the drop in temperatures this morning

Classes Dismissed

Arrival of the storm also brought an unexpected holiday for both city and county school children The Marion city school office reported all elementary schools were closed for the day at noon so that smaller children could be safely in their homes this afternoon Barring unexpectedly severe weather conditions they will reopen at the usual time Thursday morning

Both Harding High School and St Mary Parochial School were to remain in session this afternoon However, the Very Rev William Spickerman, V F , said pupils at St Mary School from rural areas might be dismissed early

May Stay Closed

In a check of Marion County schools at noon today most reported they had closed for the remainder of today and may remain closed tomorrow depending on the weather

Those schools which reported they were closed about 11 a m today were LaRue, New Bloomington, Morral, Claridon, Meeker, Grand Prairie, and Waldo

Both Pleasant and Green Camp schools reported they would remain open through today and would open tomorrow morning barring severe weather conditions

Ice Forming

Schools which could not be contacted were Prospect, and Caledonia. Outside the county, Nevada school was closed at noon

Eisenhower Flays Probers For Disregard of Fair Play

Blunt Rebuke Raps Tactics Of McCarthy

Declares No Officer Is Required To Submit to Personal Humiliation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower hit out today at 'disregard of the standards of fair play" in congressional investigations, and declared that no one in the armed forces is required to submit 'to any kind of personal humiliation' before investigating committees

Eisenhower said in a statement read to a news conference that 'in opposing communism, we are defeating ourselves if either by design or through carelessness we use methods that do not conform to the American sense of justice and fair play'

Didn't Name McCarthy

The President did not mention Sen McCarthy (R-Wis) by name, but there could be no doubt he was aiming at him, for the President coupled his remarks about congressional investigations with praise for Brig Gen Ralph Zwicker

It was McCarthy's treatment of Zwicker, commandant at Camp Kilmer, N J , which touched off the heated row of the last two weeks between McCarthy and Secretary of the Army Robert T Stevens

The President said the department of the Army had made "serious errors" in promoting and giving an honorable discharge to Maj Irving Peress, New York dentist who refused to say whether he was a Communist when before McCarthy

Defends Gen. Swicker

McCarthy later called Zwicker for questioning about Peress and, in a heated session behind closed doors told the general at one point that he was not fit to wear his uniform

This brought from Stevens a denunciation of "abuse' of Army officers

In his 800-word statement, Eisenhower outlined a three-point code he said ought to be followed in combatting internal communism

"1 We must be unceasingly vigilant in every phase of government al activity to make certain that

Act on Puerto Ricans

Speedy Indictment Of Fanatics Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government prosecutors went before a federal grand jury today to ask for indictment of four Puerto Rican fanatics in connection with a wild pistol attack upon the House of Representatives Monday.

U S. Atty. Leo A Rover said five or six witnesses would be called Both indicated they expected to complete the testimony today, possibly within a few hours.

Principal Witness

Rep. Paul W. Shafer (R-Mich) was listed as a principal witness He will be the only House member called

Other witnesses include doctors who treated the five wounded House members and police officers who questioned the four Puerto Ricans who are under arrest and jailed in default of $100,000 bond each.

The prosecutors went before the grand jury as Capitol Hill leaders pondered security measures to head off any more such attacks

Rep Alvin M Bentley (R-Mich), most seriously wounded of the five congressmen, was taken off the critical list at the hospital where he is under treatment That reduced the chance that charges against the quartet might be changed to murder.

Dr George Crile, a specialist who flew here from Cleveland to examine the 35-year old congressman, gave him a better than even chance to recover

Bentley was said to be resting more comfortably at Casualty Hospital early today His pulse, abnormally fast earlier, was reported to have slowed down Doctors said the danger was from complications which might develop from his internal injuries, particularly to his liver

Recovering Satisfactorily

The others wounded, Representatives Clifford Davis (D-Tenn), Ben F Jensen (R-Iowa), George Fallon (D-Md) and Kenneth Roberts (D-Ala), were less seriously hurt and are recovering satisfactorily

In a bulletin at 7 45 a m EST Dr Joseph R Young, chief of staff at Casualty Hospital said Bentley had been taken off the critical list

State Alerting Road Crews in Northern Ohio

Blizzard Conditions Accompanying Heavy Snowfall Are Predicted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state highway department today put its northern Ohio maintenance workers on an emergency alert as it received predictions of a new blizzard in that section of the state

At the same time Gov Frank J Lausche publicly urged all persons who do not need to travel to keep off northern Ohio highways until the emergency is over

C W McCoy, deputy state highway director in charge of operations said a heavy snow is predicted for northern Ohio today and added the snow possibly may be accompanied by 'blizzard conditions and high wind"

The highway department only last night opened up all major state highways in the northern part of the state Total snowfall earlier this week amounted to 16 or 17 inches in Medina, Lorain and Ashland counties ,

McCoy and his aids checked various parts of the state by telephone and teletype and learned three inches of fresh snow fell today in Williams County in the northwestern part of the state '

The alert affects about 1 500 highway department workers many of whom just finished clearing roads

Defense Rests In Sternbaum Murder Trial

Case May Be Given To Jury Late Today; Final Argument Set

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—The defense rested its case today in the first-degree murder trial of Max Sternbaum

The case may go to the jury late today or tomorrow State and defense attorneys were to present closing arguments this afternoon

Final defense witness was Sternbaum himself, who called the prosecuting attorney ' a brute ' for showing him a picture of his wife taken after her body was removed from the charred ruins of a fire

The 35-year-old Sternbaum is accused of beating his wife to death with a wrench then setting fire to the Sternbaum supermarket office building Dec 4, 1952

"You don t find any signs of burning on the clothes of your wife there, do you? Prosecutor Theodore Lutz asked Sternbaum

A few minutes earlier he had asked Sternbaum, 'How long would it have taken you to walk 27 feet and drag out the body of your wife?

Sternbaum replied 'Through heat and smoke, it would, have been eternity '

Lutz then showed the picture of Sternbaum s wife Leah, 31 Stern.

Democrats Rip Statements on Security Risks

Civil Service Chief's Accounting Termed 'Confusing' by Senator

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats on the Senate Civil Service Committee voiced dissatisfaction today with an accounting of the administration s security risk cases given yesterday by Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission

Sen Monroney (D Okla) said Young's testimony 'left me a lot more confused' He added that he and other committee Democrats want to ask Young more questions and that they also will insist on questioning security officers in individual government departments

May Be Recalled

Chairman Carlson (R-Kan) of the committee, said Young would be recalled although no definite date has been set He said in an interview he was convinced Young's figures "are all right '

I certainly don t believe these government departments would put out inaccurate listings " he said

Young told the committee that the number of 'security risks" cut off the federal payroll between May and the end of 1953 now has been raised to 2 247 from the 2 200 figure last used by President Eisenhower

First Public Testimony

He said 383 of these had information of a subversive nature in their files But he conceded he did not know whether even one of the 383 actually was fired for that reason He also said under close questioning that he could not say for sure whether any were disloyal

This was the civil service chief's first public testimony on the security dismissals issue and Democrats on the committee made it quite clear they were still displeased with his explanation

Trouble Arises In Seating Pike Slaying Jurors

67 Rejected in First 2 Days, May Have To Recruit From Streets

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Jurors may have to be picked from the streets today to try the man accused of the so-called 'phantom slayings" of the Pennsylvania Turnpike

The state and defense for John Wesley Wable, 24, agreed on six jurors in the first two days after examining 106 veniremen. Many were rejected because they objected to capital punishment

Wable, of Ohiopyle near Uniontown Pa , is on trial for the murder of Harry Pitts, 39, of Bowling Green, Va He is also charged with slaying Lester B Woodward, 39 of Duncannon, Pa

The bodies of the two truck-drivers were found on the turnpike last July within three days of each other The men were shot as they slept in cabs of their parked trucks

District Attorney L. Alexander Sculco said the state will ask for the death penalty. He said the prosecution expects to build its case on circumstantial evidence

Each prospective juror is asked if he or she is willing to condemn a man on circumstantial evidence The state has rejected 67 veniremen because they said no

The original panel included 20 prospective jurymen. Court attaches indicated Judge Edward Bauer may have to order Sheriff Howard Thomas to pick jurors from the street if the percentage of dismissals continues

Rep. Reed Gets Support

House Committee Bucks Humphrey, Asks Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee appeared primed to buck the Eisenhower administration today and approve a cut in more than a dozen major excise or sales taxes

Republican and Democratic committee members predicted an almost unanimous vote for a bill introduced yesterday by Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) to slash all excises now above 10 per cent down to that level

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey in a statement last night said the government could not afford such broad, sweeping reductions now

While cutting some excises the bill would cancel indefinitely reductions set under present law for April 1 on liquor, tobacco, gasoline, automobiles, beer and wine

The two actions would almost balance out if the House and Senate go along The new cuts would reduce revenues almost one billion dollars a year Killing the scheduled reductions would retain present revenues of about $1 100,000,000.

The Eisenhower administration had requested that the scheduled reductions be canceled and originally had opposed any loss in revenue from excises After Reed introduced his bill, Humphrey said the Treasury was prepared to go along with cuts in a few selected excises ' where industries were being badly hurt by especially high rates "

But he said the administration could not support across-the-board cuts of up to one billion dollars

Somerlot said he did not know how the tournament schedule would be arranged He said tonight's game probably would be played Friday with the Friday session slated on Saturday That would put the finals in the Coliseum next Monday

At press time no word had been received from Central District Class B tourney officials at Westerville or Columbus where St Mary and Morral were to play tonight

Deplorable Politics, Robison Says

Welfare Director Blasts Rhodes for GIS Charges

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—The state welfare director hit back today at Republican gubernatorial candidate James A Rhodes saying ' I think it is deplorable that candidates for public office will use state institutions for political purposes '

Issues Statement

Director Henry J Robison issued a prepared statement answering State Auditor Rhodes who yesterday called for a grand jury investigation of what he termed statutory crimes at the Delaware Girls Industrial School

Describing a visit of 'two car loads of men headed by State Auditor James A Rhodes" to the industrial school last Saturday, Robison said

"This performance is typical of the methods of the state auditor as he or his employes go from one institution to another using every device to point out things allegedly wrong and making no mention of the many laudable and constructive services that are being rendered for the unfortunate wards. '

Suspends Supervisor

Meanwhile John R Ferguson, chief of the state division of juvenile research announced he had suspended Allen Daniel, 29 of Norfolk, Va , a graduate student in the college of Education at Ohio State and a cottage parent at the Industrial school

And in Delaware County Sheriff Earl Fravel said he had filed a charge of assault against Daniel in the Delaware Municipal Court He said his charge said Daniel 'did unlawfully assault ' a teen-aged inmate at the institution and 'did take indecent liberties with her "

Daniel told state examiners Tuesday he handed in his resignation last week, effective March 15 Ferguson said Daniel's case had nothing to do with Rhodes state-

Second Owner May Seek City Bus Franchise

Interest in starting a new bus company in Marion was indicated by a second Ohio firm Tuesday afternoon

Mayor Harold F Robinson said today he talked to Chester Baker, president of the Springfield City Lines who told him the company was interested in seeking the franchise here

A tentative meeting was scheduled between a representative for Baker and city officials and members of the City Council utilities committee at the Mayor's office at noon today This was called off about 10 a m when Baker called Mayor Robinson and said his representative would be unable to get here because of the weather. He said he would send the representative here as soon as the weather clears up — possibly Thursday or Friday.

First to seek the Marion bus franchise after the Marion Transit Co. quit business last Wednesday was Rolland E. St. Johns of Dayton He presented a tentative proposal Monday night and said he would make a definite proposition within ten days

Insurance Firm's Appeal Is Rejected By Supreme Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court today refused to review an insurance company appeal from a $2 241 fire loss award to an Athens County couple.

Lower courts awarded Fred and Josephine Blazier that sum for loss of their Loch Twp property May 16 1947

The Sandy and Beaver Valley Farmers Mutual Insurance Co appealed on grounds that its policy contained a clause requiring suits within 12 months after loss

The Blaziers went to court Oct 28, 1948 They said they delayed because the company told them it was awaiting a report from the state fire marshal before settling their claim.

Medical Fees

By George Sokolsky

I heard a story the other day of two young people about to have their first child. The family doctor in their community rejects bringing babies into the world, insisting on an obstetrician. This is, to me, astonishing, for babies have come into life lo! these thousands of years with or without the aid of doctors, midwives or medicine men. It used to be the pride of the fine, old American doctor that all the young people in the community and their children were the products of his skill.

SOKOLSKY

However, we live in an age of specialization in which the mechanic who turns a screw does not use a chisel, so these young things were sent off to the obstetrician, who is nowadays a specialist in what used to be called midwifery.

-:-

THERE WERE no complications in the case, except the fee asked, which was $750, including prior and after treatment. The young people were bankrupted by their first child.

Maybe this sort of thing is unusual. I have no way of knowing. That it is anti-social is obvious because our society cannot be strong if birth is limited by the cost of doctors.

It is also a very bad thing for the medical profession, which nowadays has become suspect not of fee-splitting but of charging too much, of involving patients in the expense of multiple specialists, of operative costs which may not be necessary.

The public criticism may be all wrong, but the doctors have not succeeded in establishing their case.

I have become interested in two illnesses, diabetes and hyperinsulinism, which I pursue in the professional literature as well as in the news.

I find that too often the general practitioner rarely has knowledge of hyperinsulinism, making no tests for it and telling the patient that he finds nothing wrong, but in the end the patient takes an overdose of sleeping pills out of sheer fatigue.

I find, by talking to patients, that too few dentists realize the real dangers of pyorrhea and dislike sending patients to periodontists.

I note the literature on the subject and find that reconstructive dentistry is a science that only the rich and poor can afford; the poor in the clinics, the rich by paying the enormous costs.

NEVERTHELESS, it is true that if a person can afford a combination of periodontist, an oral surgeon and a reconstructive dentist, he is likely to keep his teeth most of his life. If all of us knew about it and could afford to pay the costs, we probably would never have to use upper and lower plates, which are a curse and an abomination.

The point of the matter is that much that is published in medical and dental journals does not find its way to the people in language which they can understand and that often physicians and dentists are too busy grubbing for a livelihood to keep up-to-date, with the results that unless the patient is sent to the specialist, he does not get the best advice and the best treatment.

The specialist costs too much, even if he cures; the patient does not have the money to pay but is too well off to be accepted at a clinic.

The various health insurance devices do not solve this problem because the amounts allowed for doctors or hospitals are inadequate and the patient may not have the money to make up the difference.

SOME COMPANIES cancel health insurance policies when the insured need their services. This is morally wrong if legally right.

The solution, of course, is for hospitals to employ staffs of physicians, specialists and dentists of the highest fitness for the services of whom the patient can pay a single fee to the hospital.

This is violently opposed by the various associations as unethical corporate practice. The motivation for the opposition is financial. After all, many of the most important medical institutions in this country, including the Mayo Clinic, do operate that way without being unethical.

The doctors have to recognize that every human being is interested in his own health and while no one expects doctors to work for too little, doctors cannot afford to out-price their services.

Probe Binders

By Victor Riesel

For the escond time in 90 days the influence of the country's law breakers apparently has been greater than the influence of the country's law makers.

RIESEL

That's the flat charge of expert criminologists who have been digging into the underworld for the government — and now find themselves orphaned by an act of Congress.

For the second time in 90 days a responsible chief counsel of a crime-busting congressional subcommittee has bluntly told me that the mobs appear to have enough influence to reach right into the House of Representatives to kill probes into labor racketeering.

This latest charge came from Arthur Toll, chief counsel for the labor racket sub-committee of the House Government Operations Committee. The charge came as reports from field investigators told of mob terrorization of businessmen, honest union leaders and rank-and-file members.

This charge was made only a few minutes after I sat in on a conference of AFL leaders who themselves are under attack by a Mafia mob with incredible power in some parts of Pennsylvania.

THESE AFL LEADERS are disturbed and are planning to fight back against a mob which only two weeks ago threw stench bombs of such modern design into a shop that it is no longer a question of just discarding the damaged dresses. The stench is so powerful it has impregnated the machinery—and after two weeks it is still clinging so adhesively that the problem now is how to use the building again.

The bomb was thrown into a shop owned by Abe Glasberg, a garment manufacturer and an official of the Pennsylvania Dress Producers Association, which the Syndicate would like to take over. That shop is in Hazelton. And only the other day another plant was bombed in Scranton.

So amid the bursting of bombs, the heaving of heavy bolts through store and restaurant windows and amid an enormous system of shakedowns, the House of Representatives rejects the Bender sub-committee bid for $100,000 to dig into these rackets. This is not to say that all or even the majority of congressmen who voted against financing the anti-crime probe were reached by hometown politicos who were, in turn, reached by hometown hoods.

THIS IS HOW Arthur Toll, Bender's chief counsel, sees it. This is how the embittered investigator put it to me:

"I feel that the fact that we hired Downey Rice and an extremely competent and experienced staff of investigators who exposed the national racket syndicates when they were with Senators Kefauver, Lyndon Johnson and the late Charles Tobey, caused the mobsters to know we mean business.

"They are putting pressure on political circles back home, to my definite knowledge, which was reflected in the House of Representatives when they threw out the $100,000 appropriation.

"We are not stopping. We are using what little money we have to proceed as planned to hold hearings so that we can graphically illustrate to the members of Congress that there are very serious problems in this field.

"There are no indications that any other committee of Congress plans to go into the field of labor rackets and terror.

"The House Labor Committee is going into the field of union welfare funds, but they are not concerning themselves with other aspects of labor racketeering. We feel that this field is certainly big enough for both committees.

"I want to say definitely that a preliminary survey by our staff has already shown many instances of racketeering.

"Our experts are impressed with the fact that it is simply our duty to continue. We will so long as we have any funds."

THE STAFF toll referred to includes Fred Plant, the ex-FBI agent who conducted virtually all the questioning of Whittaker Chambers which resulted in terrific knowledge of Alger Hiss' spy ring.

Chambers once called Plant a "walking archive on Russian espionage," so competent an investigator is he.

The other probers include men who cracked the North African military base scandal; exposed the gambling rings around Army camps and threw the spotlight on the crime-infested water fronts.

Let them loose—but don't cut them loose! Who's terrorizing who these days?

Railroad's Towers Near Upper Razed

UPPER SANDUSKY — Obolete after a century of use in steam railroad operations here, the water towers along the Pennsylvania railway lines are being razed.

Pennsylvania main - line trains operating through Upper Sandusky are now all Deisel-drawn. They include the New York - Chicago "limiteds" and other fast passenger trains as well as the heavy freight traffic on the division. Twin towers along the siding at the west corporation line here, near the Daybrook plant, have been leveled and a single tower at Harrison Smith Municipal Park will be torn down in the near future.

The three towers located here were sold, while still standing, to the Wyandot County Rod and Gun Club. Members are tearing down the structures to salvage the heavy timbers and other lumber which they plan to use in the building of a clubhouse, near here.

Local Girl Has Collection of 100 Dolls

"IF I COUNT the teddy bears there are 106."

That's how many dolls—and teddy bears — Sandralee Tharp has. Sandralee is the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tharp of 223 W. Columbia St.

Sandralee does have a lot of dolls—100 in all— and six teddy bears. She is pictured here holding one and surrounded by most of the rest. That's a teddy bear—or maybe a teddy puppy—in the extreme right of the photo. It really was a problem for Sandralee whether she ought to classify it as a dog. She finally did, however: "I didn't want to hurt its feelings."

The fifth grade student at Pearl Street School received her first doll on her first birthday. Most of the rest she has acquired as souvenirs of her travels in 29 of the states.

Except for one set of twins, all the dolls are different and each has a different name, known probably only to Sandralee. Fact of the matter, could you think up names for 100 dolls—and six teddy bears?

Red Chinese Take Cue From Marilyn

HONG KONG (AP)—The Chinese Reds, taking a cue from Marilyn Monroe's highly successful tour of South Korea, have sent Mei Lanfang touring Communist army camps.

But there is one big difference. Mei is a man.

A veteran actor, he is among the world's best-known female impersonators. The use of men in women's roles is common practice in the Chinese theater.

Judge Uses Basketball Floor, Court Too Small

BELLEFLOWER, Calif. (AP)—A basketball court was the courtroom in which 203 men and women were arraigned on gambling charges growing out of benefit bingo games.

The town's regular courtroom wasn't large enough to accommodate them.

All pleaded innocent yesterday and asked for jury trials. The Eagles Lodge, which had sponsored the games Feb. 19, served coffee and doughnuts to the defendants in a park adjacent to the court, and announced that proceeds of the picnic would go to the Heart Fund.

TRUCK DRIVER DIES

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The state highway patrol said Everett E. Cope, 46, of Zanesville died yesterday of a heart attack after his pickup truck collided with a car on U.S. 40 eight miles west of Zanesville.

Religious Movie Scheduled Here Is Study of Missions

"This Gathering Storm," religious film to be shown at the Marion Veterans Memorial Coliseum in color on a new wide screen next week, has been termed the "most comprehensive study of missions ever released to the public."

The picture, including scenes in Korea, India, and Japan, will be brought here on March 11 by World Vision, Inc., producer of other documentary films, "The Flame, "38th Parallel," "China Challenge," and "World Vision News: Korean Edition." Rev. Bob Pierce, president of this missionary enterprise, is known internationally as a minister, missionary and United Nations news correspondent.

World Vision, Inc., has aided thousands of Korean refugees, founded baby homes, orphanages, widows' homes and a hospital in Korea for wounded babies and children. Tons of clothing have been sent through this corporation to Korea and thousands of dollars have been used to aid the needy. Dr. Pierce narrates his film and five others of the organization appear in character roles. The picture is 65 minutes in length and will be presented with no admission charge.

Gable Terminating His MGM Contract

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—After 23 years with MGM studio, Clark Gable is leaving to become a free lance.

The studio's $300,000-a-year star announced yesterday that he is exercising his right to end his long-term contract, saying that he intends to avail himself of opportunities elsewhere.

A spokesman for the 53-year-old Gable said his last seven-year contract expired two months ago.

Gable has a number of pictures in mind but has no thought of engaging in television or independent movie production, the spokesman said.

Ives Concedes Legislation for FEPC Blocked

Senator To Wind Up Hearings on Proposal For Federal Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate hearings on a bill to set up a federal fair employment practices commission wind up today with its sponsor conceding that any effort to enact it would "face a filibuster."

Sen. Ives (R-NY) said so yesterday when Walter Reuther, president of the CIO, was in the witness chair endorsing the bill introduced by Ives and 19 other senators. Five witnesses were scheduled to testify today, two of them representing church groups.

Ives' bill would set up a federal agency which could force employers not to discriminate against job seekers for race, creed or color, while stressing voluntary methods.

Reuther, recalling that Southern senators had threatened to filibuster against an FEPC bill, told the labor subcommittee many Americans "are sick, tired and disgusted" with campaign promises about compulsory FEPC while Senate rules permit filibusters that would kill FEPC.

"We've got a great problem there," said Ives, who also heads the subcommittee. "We face a filibuster."

Nevertheless, the New York senator said, he considers it important to "keep pushing and pushing." He said he believes Congress eventually will put through legislation to guarantee against discrimination in employment.

Smith was information officer for the Bureau of Far Eastern Affairs.

This Coffee Cake Adds Glamor to Breakfast

If you want to make the family feel you've done something special just for them, serve a homemade coffee cake on Sunday morning.

The batter for this honey coffee cake is quick to prepare. It is a combination of standard cake ingredients. The crisp cereal topping is what makes it special.

For this light, tender cake, use:
1½ cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup shortening
1-3 cup sugar
1 egg
2-3 cup milk

For the topping, use:
1 cup sugar-coated corn flakes
3 tablespoons soft butter or margarine
¼ cup honey
¼ cup shredded coconut
½ cup drained crushed pineapple

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Blend shortening and sugar; add egg and beat well. Stir in sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, being careful not to overmix. Spread in greased 9x9-inch pan.

Crush corn flakes slightly. Blend butter and honey; stir in shredded coconut, pineapple and corn flakes. Spread over batter. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 35 minutes. Makes 9 3-inch squares.

Boeing Completes Giant New Jetliner

SEATTLE (AP)— A jet-propelled challenge to British and American planemakers—a 550-mile-an-hour aerial giant—has been taken from under its veil of secrecy by the Boeing Airplane Co.

The 95-ton swept-wing, four-jet airplane was shown yesterday as it neared completion in the sprawling plant of the company which also builds the Air Force's B47 and B52 jet bombers.

It was know-how gained in building the bombers that made it possible for Boeing to be so near completion of the prototype of what it hopes will be the world's commercial carrier of the future, said William M. Allen, president of the company.

But, he stressed, the 15 to 16 million dollars spent in developing the 707—trade name for the airliner—came from Boeing's coffers and was a gamble made in the interest of "our own national welfare, both military and commercial."

The first 707 won't fly until possibly early in September, he said, and production of planes for sale is three years away. But, company officials contend this will give them a sizable jumpoff on other American manufacturers because, they said, no other airplane building in the United States has progressed as far with jet airliners.

Only De Haviland of England has a commercial jet in the air and Allen said he was confident the English Comet will be no match for Boeing's giant.

The company said it couldn't for competitive reasons give firm figures for perfrmance of the 707 but admitted it would fly from 4,000 to 5,000 miles, carrying from 80 to 150 passengers while cruising along at an altitude of 35,000 feet "and up."

Its four jet engines develop the equivalent of 10,000 horsepower each at sea level and twice as much at 35,000 feet. The fuselage is 128 feet long and the wingspread 130 feet.

Allen said the company hopes for some military orders, too, as the plane is, in his words, ideally suited to serve as a tanker for the B52 and B47.

Single Traffic Accident Reported in City, County

One minor no injury traffic accident was reported on city streets during the last 24 hours until 10 a.m. this morning by city police. None were reported on county highways during the same period by the state patrol and sheriff's deputies.

The accident in the city occurred at 6:53 a.m. Tuesday at W. Center St. and Olney Ave. Cars driven by Carl Welch, 30, of 597½ Silver St. and Douglas B. Shelton, 44, of 557 Cherry St. were involved in the collision. Both claimed they skidded on icy pavement.

Man Draws Jail Term On Contributing Charge

Emmett V. Glass, 50, of near Marion, pleaded guilty to charges of contributing to the delinquency of his 16-year-old daughter this morning in Juvenile Court.

Judge Edward J. Ruzzo sentenced him to 60 days in the county jail and fined him $100 and costs. The girl was committed to the temporary care and custody of the Child Welfare Board.

Glass was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Marion city police on a warrant issued by the sheriff's office, and was lodged in the county jail.

SEOUL (AP)—Seventeen South Korean officers, including a rear admiral, have been discharged from service to run in the May National Assembly election, the Defense Ministry said today.

Marion Woman Pleads Guilty to Child Neglect

Ruzzo who also sentenced her to 60 days in the Marion County jail. The jail sentence was suspended on condition Mrs. Bostic not leave her children alone.

The charges were filed following a minor fire at the Bostic home on Feb. 9 apparently started by one of her three children ranging in age from two to four years.

3 Bids Entered For City Light Control Work

Bids for some $5,000 worth of new traffic light control devices were to be opened at Mayor Harold F. Robinson's office at noon today.

Mayor Robinson said as of 10 a.m. this morning three bids had been received and one or two more was expected before the deadline.

Purpose of the new controls will be to synchronize all lights in the downtown area to provide a smoother flow of traffic, Mayor Robinson said. With the proposed controls it will be possible to set the lights so a motorist may travel through town at a certain speed without stopping — providing traffic is not heavy, he explained.

Council previously asked for bids on supplying and installation of the controls before deciding whether or not to appropriate necessary funds for the control devices. Mayor Robinson estimated the controls would cost about $3,200 and installation about $1,800.

The Adjutant General's Office—the heart of the Army's administrative operation—receives on an average of more than 45,000 pieces of mail every day.

Upper Studies State Proposal

Highway Resurfacing To Cost City $10,000

UPPER SANDUSKY — The Upper Sandusky City Council is studying a plan to amend the present parking ordinance of 10 minutes of free parking in front of the post office building in this city and to install 12-minute parking meters there as a means of regulating the present parking problem.

There was also a proposal at the Monday night meeting by the State Highway Department for the resurfacing of S. Sandusky and W. Wyandot Aves. and N. Warpole St., or State Route 29.

The highway department proposes the resurfacing of S. Sandusky Ave. from the Pennsylvania Railroad, south to South St.; W. Wyandot Ave. from Seventh St. to Warpole St.; Warpole St. to be widened four feet on each side and resurfaced from Wyandot Ave. to Church St.

It is estimated this would cost in the neighborhood of $40,000. The village is being asked to pay $10,000 as its share of this work.

Recreation Council At Bucyrus Names Roberts President

BUCYRUS — Franklin H. Roberts, an insurance agent, was elected president of the municipal recreation commission at a reorganization meeting here Monday night.

E. B. Hagaman, Bucyrus YMCA secretary, was re-elected secretary and Emerson Stuckman was named vice president. Other board members are Lawrence Schott and Rev. M. P. Paetznick, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Named as an advisory group to the board were Council Clinton W. Ackerman and Joseph Kaupp. Dr. James E. Frey, Bruce Sharrock and Crawford County Agriculture Agent Russell L. Miller.

The commission voted unanimously to rehire Alex Kish, a Bucyrus High School faculty member, as recreation director during the summer months at a salary of $200 a month.

Commission members pointed out that with a budget of $9,650 it is impossible to provide more picnic tables, fire places, playground equipment and other items for use at Aumiller Park.

Pope Has 'Fairly Good' Night, Vatican Reports

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Vatican sources reported again today that Pope Pius XII passed a "fairly good night" and that his slow improvement of the past several days continues.

There was no official announcement on the condition of the ailing pontiff, who yesterday observed his 78th birthday and the 15th anniversary of his election to the papacy.

But sources at the Vatican said he has slept well during the past seven nights and that this is aiding him in his progress toward recovery from his ailment, tentatively diagnosed as gastritis.

Mansfield towering Tygers ended Harding's tournament hopes last night with a 62-52 verdict but managed to post the win only after beating off a determined comeback by the scrappy Prexies.

Harding came back from a 13-point deficit just before the half ended to narrow the winners' lead to a slim four points near the end of the third period.

The Mansfield sharpshooters managed only one more field goal than the Presidents but pulled the game out of the fire at the foul line. Tyger marksmen hit for 23 from the field while Harding potted 22. However, Mansfield hit on 16 of 29 from the free throw marker while Harding collected only eight of 20 chances.

Take Quick Lead

Harding got a quick jump on the visitors when Max Kaelber dumped in two charity throws for a 2-0 lead. However, before Doug Bibler scored on a jump shot at the midway mark, Mansfield had gained an 8-2 edge on fielders by Dave Jacoby, George Swank, Bill Mack and Phil Tinkey. A set shot by Ron Conroy and two drive-ins by Kaelber narrowed the gap to 11-10 before Ed Deeds hit to give the Tygers a 13-10 lead at the quarter.

Tinkey, a 6-4 forward, and Swank, 6-5 pivotman, sparked the Mansfield quintet into a 10-point bulge early in the second frame. With 30 seconds to play, they led 30-16 but Bob Hamor connected to cut the halftime gap to 30-18.

Lowell McFann and Bob Hamor lowered the margin to 31-21 at the start of the period and a five-point spurt by Kaelber reduced the score to 32-26. Conroy followed with a set shot for a 32-28 count before Mack batted in a rebound for Mansfield's first fielder of the third period. Nearly half the quarter had elapsed. With two minutes left Harding still trailed by only four points but Swank, Tinkey and Jack Cline scored from the field and Mack added a foul shot to boost the lead to 44-35 as the third quarter ended.

Maintain Lead

The winners maintained an eight to 10-point lead through most of the final stanza although Harding managed to lower the margin to 58-51 when Kaelber dropped in a bunny shot with two minutes and 10 seconds to play.

The Tygers lost their ace rebounder, Swank, with 2:07 left on the clock but Jacoby dropped through a pair of foul shots at the 1:34 mark to clinch the verdict. Mansfield managed to freeze the ball the rest of the way.

One of the bright spots of the contest for Prexy fans was the performance of 6-3 sophomore Lowell McFann. He came off the bench to fill in for Dave Schnelker and turned in one of the best rebounding performances of the season. He, along with Hamor, handled the rebounding for the Prexies. He also scored seven points in his operations around the basket in indicating he'll be an important cog in next year's Prexy machine.

Harding finished the game with a 41 per cent shooting average. The team connected on 22 of 53 attempts from the field. At the foul line, the Prexies' 8 for 20 gave them a 40 per cent average.

Kaelber Leads Attack

Kaelber was the big gun in the attack with 19 points. He dropped in seven of Harding's eight fouls. Conroy finished the game with 12 while Bibler hit for eight and Hamor for six. McFann scored the other seven.

Four Tygers hit for double figure scores. Swank's 15 was high while Jacoby scored 14, Tinkey added 12 and Mack netted 11.

Five Prexies finished their high school careers last night. Seniors playing their final game were Schnelker Hamor, Conroy, Bibler and Smith.

Cincinnati Eyes Invitation for Open NIT Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—The NCAA post-season tournament filled one more of its berths today with Texas Tech, the champion of the Border Conference-but the National Invitation Tournament still was scrounging for the last club to fill its 12-team field.

Texas Tech wrapped up the Border crown last night by taking care of West Texas 84-71. It was the final game of the season for both schools and it gave Tech an 11-1 league record against 9-3 for West Texas.

The Southwest Conference race ended in a deadlock last night with Rice and Texas holding 9-4 records.

The Longhorns closed out operations by whipping Texas Christian 68-59, while Rice scored an equally emphatic triumph over Southern Methodist 90-64. The two clubs will have a three-game playoff starting at Houston Friday night.

The tie in the Southwest loop was just what the promoters of the National Invitation didn't want. They were hoping either Texas or Rice would get beaten—and they probably didn't care which—because they wanted the second-place team.

Now with their tournament starting Saturday night in Madison Square Garden, they'll have to find another team. Cincinnati probably will draw the open berth on the strength of having polished off Duquesne for the Dukes' first defeat of the campaign last week.

Oklahoma A&M moved a step closer the Missouri Valley title by crushing Tulsa 77-46 and here again the NIT has a definite interest in the proceedings. The Aggies have one more game to play—against the pesky St. Louis Billikens Saturday night—and if they win it, they're in. Wichita, which already has finished its season with an 8-2 mark, has accepted a bid to the NIT if another team wins the conference championship. Should St. Louis defeat the Aggies, there would be a tie.

Holy Cross, NIT-bound, played its last game of the regular season and turned back Temple 85-73 in Boston. The Crusaders finished with a record of 25-2. Togo Palazzi, Holy Cross' top scorer, had 30 points.

In other top games, Niagara halted Colgate 65-57 by pointing 12 straight points through the hoop in the last two minutes, and Yale edged Rhode Island 89-83.

Cleveland NAIA Tourney Postponed Due to Snow

CLEVELAND (AP)—The NAIA regional basketball tournament will be played here tomorrow and Saturday nights with the winner going to the finals at Kansas City.

Participating in the play will be Rio Grande, led by Bevo Francis, and Central State, John Carroll and Findlay.

The games were to have been held tonight and tomorrow in Cleveland arena. The change was made because it was feared the heavy snow here would cut attendance.

The Kansas City finals in the NAIA—National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics—will start next Monday.

Rookie Pair May Answer Cubs' Puzzle

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs' second base combinations cost Phil Cavarretta many sleepless nights last Season. Today, the 37-year-old manager thinks he has the situation well in hand, because of two Negro rookies—Ernie Banks and Gene Baker.

"Failure to make the double play and those many errors we had is what ruined us last year," Cavarretta said. "With these two kids I believe we may have the problem solved."

He is particularly impressed with the showing of Banks, the 22-year-old shortstop purchased from the Kansas City Monarchs last September. Banks batted .314 in 10 National League games.

"Banks has looked great," he beamed. "He has sure hands, a fine arm and looks like a hitter. He has great wrists.

"I got a good line on him last season when he slammed a home run off Gerry Staley—a sidearm right-hander. That's always a pretty good trick for a right-handed batter."

Although he's not supposed to be quite as good a batter as Banks, the 28-year-old Baker hit .248 for Los Angeles in 1953, including 20 home runs and 99 runs batted in.

He played shortstop for the Pacific Coast league club, but Cavarretta is confident he can easily make the switch to second base.

"If he can hit as well as Eddie Miksis, he stands an excellent chance of running him off the bag," Cavarretta explained. Miksis batted .251 in '53.

In all, the seventh-place Cubs made 79 of their 193 errors around second base last season. Miksis, dividing his time between second and shortstop, made 35 miscues, and Roy Smalley, at shortstop, made 25. The club made 141 double plays. Only Pittsburgh had fewer.

While Cavarretta was oozing with optimism in the Cubs' camp, Manager Steve O'Neill was laying down the law in the quarters of the Philadelphia Phillies. The veteran skipper ruled there will be a midnight curfew during spring training.

"No slipshod play will be allowed this year," he warned.

The Phillies also were reported trying to trade first baseman Earl Torgeson to either the New York Giants or the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Elsewhere, the broken collarbone suffered by Ted Williams earlier this week appeared to have touched off a rash of injuries.

Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee's slugging third baseman, wrenched his back during batting practice and will be out for several days. Walt Linden, the Braves' reserve catcher, fractured his right thumb, and pitcher Bob Trice of the Philadelphia Athletics fell on his left shoulder, but was not seriously hurt.

Mickey Vernon, the American League's leading batter last year, was the center of a conference between Calvin Griffith, Washington's vice president, and Joe Cronin, general manager of the Boston Red Sox.

The Sox are said to be seeking Vernon as a replacement for Williams, who is feared lost for the early weeks of the season. Vernon has yet to sign his 1954 contract with the Nats.

Tells of $10,000 Fee

N.Y. Secretary of State Testifies in Track Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — New York's Secretary of State Thomas J. Curran told state probers of harness race tracks yesterday that he received a $10,000 fee in connection with the negotiations that led to establishment of Yonkers Raceway.

Curran, Republican leader of Manhattan, was a witness before a special state commission, which continues its public hearings today.

He testified that he received the $10,000 as his share of a legal fee from Thomas J. Todarelli, former assistant U.S. attorney, for introducing Todarelli to former State Supreme Court Justice William F. Bleakley and for conferring with the two.

Todarelli was counsel for the Algam Corp., which now owns the suburban Yonkers, N.Y., and Bleakley, one-time Republican candidate for governor, was counsel for the James A. Butler estate. Todarelli and Bleakley took part in negotiations which led to the purchase of the old Empire City racetrack, by Algam. Yonkers Raceway was established at the old Empire City track in 1949.

Bleakley, long a Republican power in suburban Westchester County, now is chairman of the Board of Directors of Algam and attorney for the Yonkers Trotting Assn., which runs races at the Yonkers Raceway, as well as attorney for the Butler interests.

Bleakley told the probe commission yesterday that he received a check for $25,000 from Algam Jan. 2, 1950, while he still represented the Butler interests, which held a mortgage on Yonkers track property. He said, however, that he had not sought the check and that he sent it back by mail.

The state investigation commission, which began a series of public hearings Monday, was appointed by Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey after scandals broke at several of the state's harness race tracks—notably Yonkers Raceway and Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island. Among the scandal revelations were the parts played in track operations by public officials politicians and racketeers; labor racketeering, pay kickbacks and employment of men with criminal records at tracks.

At yesterday's hearing, a number of leading Republicans were named among those interested in operation of the state's eight harness race tracks.

Mims, Ward Clash In Video Headliner

DETROIT (AP) — Quick-hitting Holly Mims of Washington, D. C., idle for three months, returns to ring warfare tonight and is a 7 to 5 favorite to beat Detroiter Moses Ward in a middleweight 10-rounder in Olympia Stadium.

The bout will be telecast from coast-to-coast starting at 10 p. m.

Working on a seven-fight winning streak, the more experienced Mims is expected to have too much speed and staying power for the 21-year-old Ward, who is getting his second crack at the big time.

Last month Ward made a strong stand against Willie Troy, another Washington middleweight, but punched himself into near exhaustion and was knocked out in the eighth round.

Pitchers, Young Rookie Please Redleg Skipper

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) —One of the most promising young players in the Cincinnati Redleg spring training camp today is Jackie Simpson of Van Nuys, Calif.

The 18-year-old outfielder, graduated from high school just 29 days ago, has a strong throwing arm. He can hit, too. During an intrasquad game yesterday, he doubled home the only run for the losing team, coached by veteran outfielder Bob Borkowski.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts, in need of good pitching, saw some promise during the game. George Zuverink retired six batters in a row in his two-inning stint.

Trade talk includes pitchers Harry Perkowski, Kenny Raffensberger and Clyde King.

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — Laughing off reports that Chicago Cub executives are trying to get waivers on him, Frank Baumholtz declares he's the man to beat for the club's centerfield job.

"I only worry about that opening day lineup," said Baumholtz at the Cub training camp in Mesa. "Anybody who keeps me out of that one has a fight on his hands."

Baumholtz noted that he batted .36 last season, second high for the Cubs.

There are reports that personnel director Wid Matthews, aware that there is an excellent market for Baumholtz in the American League, tried to get waivers on him. The move reportedly was blocked by a Brooklyn Dodgers claim.

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—With slugger Ted Williams sidelined with a fractured left collarbone, the Boston Red Sox today were reported to be negotiating for Washington's Mickey Vernon, the American League's batting leader.

General Manager Joe Cronin refused to comment, but in the Senators' Orlando training camp their vice-president, Calvin Griffith, said "We have discussed the possibility of a trade involving Vernon."

Bucyrus and Ashland Also Win Openers in Sectional

Bucyrus laced Upper Sandusky 62-41 and Ashland downed Crestline 53-45 in the two opening games of the Northwest District sectional tournament last night at the Coliseum.

The win pits Bucyrus against Mansfield in the opening semi-final tilt Friday night at 7 p.m. while Ashland must down Galion tonight in order to qualify for the semi-final round. The Ashland - Galion battle is slated for 8:20 following the 7 p.m. clash between Shelby and Mansfield Madison.

Ashland's Arrows raced into a 10-0 lead early in the curtain lifter and were never in trouble although Coach C. E. Taylor used his second-liners most of the last half. The winners held an 18-3 lead at the quarter way mark and at the half were ahead 34-15. They led 46-24 going into the last frame before a Crestline rally cut the lead. The Bulldogs outscored the Arrows 21-7 in the last period. The game was marked by numerous fouls. Ashland scored 23 points from the foul line and Crestline notched 21 charity throws.

Crestline's Bill Klopfenstin was the high scorer with 21 points. Roy Gallentine showed in 17 for the losers. Ken Sidle, Ashland's choice for All-Ohio laureis topped the Arrow attack with a 20-point output. Jack Miller added 13.

The Bucyrus Redmen were held to a 9-9 tie in the first period before Upper Sandusky's defense weakened in the second. The Redmen cruised to a 25-19 edge at the half and increased their margin steadily the rest of the way. They held a 40-24 cushion after limiting the Rams to five markers in the third quarter. Dave McClain hit once from the field and twice from the foul line and Mike Riley scored a foul for Upper's only points in the third quarter.

A 22-point spurt in the fourth quarter clinched the decision for the Redmen.

Glen Butterman, who set a new scoring mark for Bucyrus High School during the regular season, pumped in 17 markers to take individual scoring laurels for the tourney's opening session. Dave McClain was high for the losers with nine.

Upper Sandusky was limited to 10 field goals by Bucyrus' tight defensive play. Butterman, Ned Bibler and Roger Freshwater gave the winners control of both boards and accounted for the easy Bucyrus win.

Sprain May Slow Anderson of St. Mary in Tourney

Irish Meet Northwestern In Game Slated at Capital

Gloom hung over the St. Mary camp today as the Irish prepared for their debut in the Class B District Basketball Tournament at Capital tonight with the announcement that Mike Anderson, St. Mary's leading scorer and top rebounder, might not be able to play.

Anderson is nursing a badly sprained left ankle suffered in the game with Granville in the exempted village and parochial school tourney when the Irish qualified for district play for the second straight year.

May Start

Coach Ray Robbins said he might start Anderson although the red-headed ace is a doubtful starter. Either John Messenger or Don Shoemaker will fill Anderson's shoes tonight if the southpaw forward is unable to see action.

St. Mary's tilt with Northwestern of Raymond, Union County league champ and tournament runner-up with a 15-7 mark, is the second of the evening at Capital and is scheduled for 8:30.

The opener pits Newark St. Francis, which was seeded with a 19-3 log, against Howard, 9-12.

Meanwhile at Otterbein, Morral will be stepping into its first tourney action. The Wildcats, Marion County's third best team with an 18-5 mark, tangle with Amanda, 14-5, in the second game of the night at 8:30 p.m. there after Johnsville, 18-5, opposes a tall Hebron team, 21-4 in the opening contest at 7 p.m.

Prospect In Action

Marion County's other remaining entrant in the District tournament, Prospect, takes the floor at Capital Thursday night. The Bulldogs, who were county league co-champs and tournament runners-up, face Williamsport at 7 p.m. in the opening tilt of the evening. Both quintets take 17-4 marks into the fray.

Tournament games Thursday night find Lancaster St. Mary taking on Fredericktown at Capital after Prospect and Williamsport battle and Olentangy meeting Gahanna and Liberty Union facing Magnetic Springs at Otterbein.

Chesterville and Mt. Gilead are slated for action Friday at Capital.

St. Mary's foe, Northwestern, will probably open with Harold Herd, 6-0 senior, and Larry Michael, 6-3 junior, at the forwards; Hayes Crum, a 5-11 senior, at center; and George Steele, 5-6 junior, and Bill Nibert, 5-6 senior, at the guard posts.

Although Crum is the leading scorer for the Northwestern team, scoring is fairly evenly distributed. The Irish will likely see Charles Argo, who stands 5-10, in the lineup for the foes.

The Irish are expected to go with Jack O'Keeffe at the other forward; Roger Micheli at center; and Butch Merchant and Jerry Ballenger at the guard slots.

Micheli and Merchant, who both have 218 points, trail Anderson in the scoring department for the Irish. Anderson has pumped in 298 points for the Irish this season. Next comes Ballenger with 82 points and O'Keeffe with 76.

Messenger has 86 points while Larry Ryan, who undoubtedly will break into the lineup, has accounted for 51.

Weather Holds Key to Houston Open Tourney

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Par and a 72-hole course record of 277 appear headed for trouble in the $30,000 Houston Open unless threatening weather takes command.

About 160 players were taking final practice rounds today on the sprawling memorial park course for tomorrow's opening of winter golf's richest tournament.

Five players posted 69s yesterday for the 7,122-yard, par 72 course while sharing medalist honors among the 58 non-exempt golfers who qualified for tomorrow's first round.

During four days of tournament play last year only 17 players turned in 18-hole scores of 69 or lower. In qualifying play a year ago there were only two sub-par scores, a 70 and a 71. There were 13 par-breakers yesterday.

Threatening weather could step in and cause scores to soar.

Loddie Kempa, Kansas City, Mo., Buster Reed, Camp Hood, Tex., and Don Shock, Columbus, Ohio, finished early and posted their 69s before a cold wave hit town with a bit of rain.

Marion Horse Tops Nation's Trotters

McNamara's R. K. Giers Takes 23 Out of 34 Starts in 1953

A Marion horse — R. K. Giers, owned by Dr. J. G. McNamara of 325 S. Vine St. — was second to none among the trotters in the nation last year.

The local horse and another three-year-old trotter, Jochovolo, owned by Herman Graham of Salem, Ill., were the top trotters of 1953 with 23 wins each, the U. S. Trotting Association reported.

DR. McNAMARA'S HORSE and the Illinois owned animal tied for third spot in the national list with pacer Jacky Maxey, owned by O. J. Mills of Marshall, Minn.

The nation's leading winner among harness horses last year was Goldie Bales, an eight-year-old mare owned by C. E. Martin of Denison, Ia., who came home first in 32 of her 46 engagements. Tru Single G., 14-year-old pacing gelding owned by Arthur B. McGee of Augusta, Maine, was second with 30 wins, 31 seconds and 15 thirds.

R. K. Giers went to the post 34 times during 1953 and in addition to the 23 wins garnered four seconds and four thirds.

Bob Seabrook of Urbana trained and drove R. K. Giers, who is out of Dr. McNamara's mare General Maid and is the bay son of Algiers.

R. K. GIER. Dr. J. G. McNamara's flashy colt which led the nation's trotters last year, is shown in one of his 1953 wins here. Robert Seabrook is piloting him to the finish line in a heat at the Lebanon Raceway.

R. K. Giers' best wins came in stakes at Grandview and Painesville.

The horse won trots there in times of slightly over 2:07 over a mile track. Its best time during the season was a 2:03 effort.

—:—

HOWEVER, THE BIGGEST race of the year — the Governor's Cup at the Ohio State Fair — eluded Dr. McNamara's horse. It did finish second although making two bad breaks in the heats. The Marion animal was slowed by a bad leg for that event.

Dr. McNamara and Seabrook are eagerly awaiting the opening of the harness season this year. Present plans call for R. K. Giers to be entered in most of the leading stake races through this section of the country.

Paddy DeMarco Positive He Can Lift Jimmy Carter Title

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—Paddy DeMarco, a confident challenger, is just hoping that lightweight champion Jimmy Carter will try to run up his knockout record in title fights.

Carter has won his last three championship contests by knockouts and is a 3-1 favorite to whip DeMarco in Madison Square Garden Friday night in their 15-round title fight.

"He's slow moving and he aims to knock you out with his right," said the 26-year-old Brooklyn battler as he finished his hard drills for the title scrap. "I like those guys who are out to get you with rights. I can get in there and bang to the body.

"He'll get hit by right hands, straight jabs, rights to the body, left hooks—every kind of a punch. You know what this chance means to me. You know I've been looking forward to it a long time.

"I can beat him. I've seen him."

It was pointed out that Paddy had scored only seven knockouts in 80 fights and never had gone more than 10 rounds. Did he think he could go the 15 and outpoint the champ?

"I know the chances are slim that I'll knock him out," he replied, "and that I'll have to go 15. Okay, I'll go 15. What's so hard about that? Many a time I've gone 10 and felt real fresh. I knew I could have gone 15 just as easily."

Newport Dream, leading money-winning harness horse of 1953, won 20 of his 22 starts, the last 16 in a row. He earned $94,933, a new high for a 2-year old.

Ends Holdout

Lemon Accepts Cut, Signs Contract; Rosen Finds Eye

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Their holdout problems solved with pitcher Bob Lemon's agreement to salary terms, the Cleveland Indians get down to serious business today at their desert training camp.

Lemon, who came to terms last night at a reported salary of $42,000, remains the highest paid pitcher in the American League.

The 21-game winner of last season is believed to have taken a $2,000 pay cut. Terms of his contract were not announced. General Manager Hank Greenberg spoke by telephone with the 33-year-old righthander at his home in Long Beach, Calif.

He told Greenberg to expect him in Tucson by next Thursday.

Lemon has won 20 games or more in five of the last six seasons. Last season he lost 15.

With Early Wynn also heading for Tucson, Mike Garcia was the only member of the Indians' big three pitchers working out at the camp. Garcia pitched two innings in an intrasquad game yesterday.

His opening pitch in the second inning gave third baseman Al Rosen his first home run of the new year, a wallop over the left field wall. Rosen led the league last season with 43 homers.

Rocky Nelson, new first base candidate, took a fast ball from Bob Chakales and sent it over the right field fence for a two-run homer. Another newcomer, right-fielder Dave Philley, homered off Dick Tomanek.

An Avon Lake southpaw, Tomanek is a prospect for a starting job on the Indians' mound, Manager Al Lopez said.

Lallo Is Penalized As Highway Patrol Enters Hockey Act

The Grand Rapids Rockets apparently did all their speeding before their game with the Johnstown Jets last night.

At any rate, the Marion post of the state highway patrol reported they were whizzing through a 35-mile-per-hour speed zone just north of town on Route 23 at 12:10 p.m. yesterday. Patrolmen clocked their speed at 50 and arrested the bus driver, Morris G. Lallo, 28, of Grand Rapids, Mich. He posted a bond and was scheduled for Municipal Court Saturday.

After arriving at Johnstown, the Rockets lost their International League hockey game, 9-3.

Bus Line Sold By Galion Man

Change Ends 28-Year Ownership by Edlers

The Galion - Mansfield Transi Co. has changed hands after 28 years ownership by one family.

Harold Todd, operator of the Todd Bus Lines of Mansfield, purchased for an estimated $5,000 the stock owned by four members of the Edler family of Galion.

The bus line, which serves Marion, Bucyrus, Galion and Mansfield on regular schedules, was organized in 1926 by C. W. F. Edler. Most recently the general manager has been his son, Gerald Edler.

Previously, Edler had stated his intention to go out of business March 1. Todd's bid was high among five interested buyers, including Walter Shook, present driver of the bus.

Todd states the present bus schedules will remain in effect, although he plans some eventual changes. Current departure times from Marion are 11:20 a.m. and 5:40 p.m. The new owner says company buses will be available for chartering by groups more so than they have in the past.

Shook will remain as driver.

COLLIDE NEAR MT. GILEAD

A Morrow County traffic accident was reported today by the Marion post of the state highway patrol. A car driven by Jack F. Patrolmen reported no injuries, moderate damage to the car, light damage to the truck and the arrest of Menth for driving left of center. He was fined $10 and costs by Mt. Gilead Mayor Emery M. Murphy.

Salary Increases Sought by Kenton Police and Firemen

KENTON — Petitions received here Monday night by City Council for salary increases for city police and firemen were referred to the finance committee.

The committee was instructed to scan the city's finances relative to funds for any possible raises and to report at the next meeting, March 15.

Council approved an ordinance to proceed with the extension of the 10-inch water line to the Durez plant, south of the city, on Route 68. Safety-Service Director John White was authorized to advertise for bids on the project.

The group also approved a proposition of the State Highway Department to widen by four feet a section of S. Main St. from the Erie Railroad to the corporation limits. The work will be done by the state with no expense to the city.

Bellefontaine Architect To Design Hardin Home

KENTON — Howard C. Manor of Bellefontaine was employed as architect for the new Hardin County home and hospital when the county commissioners met with the county home building commission Monday.

Manor, who prepared a preliminary sketch of the building when the proposal was submitted to the voters last November, will present two plans this week for the board to study before reaching a decision on type of architectural design and other building program phases.

YOUTH FINED $25

A 17-year-old Marion boy was fined $25 and costs and ordered not to drive until he reached the age of 18 yesterday when he appeared before Juvenile Judge Edward J. Ruzzo. He was charged with driving without an operator's permit.

Provides Military 'New Look'

House of Commons Okays Record Budget in Britain

LONDON (AP)—The House of Commons approved Britain's record budget without a vote but the Labor opposition forced a ballot.

The budget, pointed toward a "new look" buildup of British air and atomic strength as a deterrent to war, provides for the spending of 1,639,000,000 pounds ($4,591,720,000) in the fiscal year starting April 1. It tops the announced outlay for the current year by 3,140,000 pounds.

Churchill asked in debate last night that the House accept the budget without a vote to keep the defense question out of "the trough of party bickerings." He said "any weakness or disunity in Britain, when she is known to be working for peace, would weaken her strength out of all proportion to the money saved."

The Laborites criticized individual points in the Conservative government's defense program, called for a cut in conscripts' service terms from two years to 18 months and urged a reduction in the deployment of British troops around the world, particularly in the Suez Canal zone.

Labor party leader Clement Attlee said, "It has always been clear to us that one of the objects of the Kremlin would be to make us expend so much on military preparations that we might cripple our economy."

Conservatives and Laborites divided on strict party lines in approving the budget, which includes American military aid amounting to 85,360,000 pounds (239 million dollars).

In calling for unity, Churchill said any unwillingness by Britain to carry a heavy arms burden would court disaster for this island nation and imperil world peace. He said Britain must always seek to keep Russian armed might far enough from her shores to prevent a possible launching of parachute troop attacks.

The 79-year-old Prime Minister, speaking vigorously, declared the West's defenses are gaining "a period of alert" to guarantee against a surprise attack.

"An alert period means not only a sure and substantial minimization of the massacre," he said, "but an additional hope of averting the conflict itself."

He said Britain is spending twice as much on defense research now as in the 1951-52 fiscal year.

Rochester Boy, 9, Chooses Lucky Star

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Nine-year-old Johnny Galvin made like a meteor while wishing on a star but got his wish anyhow. Then for a moment he wished he hadn't.

He was doing his wishing for a bicycle from a second-story window when out he went. He grabbed a ledge and held on until a neighbor caught him in a blanket. He suffered only a bump on the head.

E. R. Hershey of Plymouth, Mich., read of the mishap and sent Johnny a bicycle.

It arrived yesterday. The star-gazer set out on a tour of the neighborhood, lost control and the bike wound up against the rear of an automobile. But that star apparently still was in charge. Johnny escaped injury and the bike came through with nothing more serious than a bent front wheel.

DIES FROM INJURIES

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP)—The wife of a Cincinnati man killed Sunday in an automobile accident died yesterday from injuries suffered in the crash. Mrs. Elizabeth Arnett, 35, and her husband, Robert, 49, were pitched from their car when it collided with another on U.S. 50 in Dodsonville.

Several thousand mice are milked regularly in New York City as part of a scientific project, says the National Geographic Society.

Runaway Cow Tumbles Through Ceiling of Store

INVERNESS, Scotland (AP)—Customers in a local vegetable shop broke and ran yesterday when plaster showered from the ceiling, followed by a cow named Sally.

Sally was a refugee from a nearby auction market.

She'd climbed a flight of stairs adjoining the shop to elude pursuit, only to have the landing collapse under her weight.

DEFENDS BRIDE WHO POSED AS GI. Former Air Force man Jim Viers (left), 25, says he saw little wrong with reports that his Irish-born wife, Terry (right), 23, spent six months on an American air base in England disguised as a GI. His wife said she took up residence in a hut with seven men, mainly as a party prank, two years before she married Viars. He is trying to land a job on Dayton, O., police force to pay her way to this country.

Riot of Revelry In N.Y. Marks Advent of Lent

NEW YORK (AP)—Littered streets and tired faces marked a solemn end today to the carnival season.

The climax came with the daylight reign of Rex, Lord of Misrule, and Comus, who held sway by torchlight last night.

Most of the city was costumed and masked for its gala holiday. An impromptu strip tease popped up at points to enliven the crowds.

Masking ended at nightfall.

The balls of Comus and Rex closed the social activities. At the stroke of midnight the court of Rex visited the court of Comus, in deference to Comus' seniority. The monarchs drank a toast to the end of another carnival season and the beginning of the 40-day Lenten period and the city's return to realism.

Police reported they handled 551 complaints, compared with about 200 for an ordinary day. There were 103 automobile accidents and 56 cases of drunkenness. John Albert, 53, was shot to death after he broke up a fight between two women.

In order to re-rail locomotives and equipment in case of accident, giant hydraulic jacks are employed on British railroads which operate faster than the conventional equipment without blocking adjacent tracks.

A Stroll on Madison Avenue

It's been a long time since I took you on a stroll through Madison avnue, listening to the delightful figures of speech which flower on that thoroughfare. On Madison avenue, when tackling a problem, a man never says: 'Well, we're getting somewhere." That's much too easy.

J. CROSBY

You have to trick it up a little. Recently, an ad agency executive — So help me Hannah — ended a conference with the words: "Well, the oars are in the water and we're headed upstream." That may easily be my favorite sentence since another genius over there let fly with. "Let's up periscope and look around." The metaphors are all sprouting water-wings.

-:-

ON MADISON AVENUE, ideas are inspected, sniffed at, mulled over and tormented more than anywhere else and naturally this has brought forth language of unique beauty. One ad man, sniffing away at a program idea, turned to his colleagues and remarked: "Let's drop this down the well and see how big a splash it makes."

-:-

ONE CRAZY MIXED-UP ad agency man, nosing around a projected program, murmured: "Let's guinea pig that for size." Meaning, I guess, let's try it out on a small scale before getting stuck with it on a large one. As I say, I guess that's what it means. Sometimes this stuff comes in badly translated.

Then there was the case of one ad agency man trying to talk down the ideas of another one. Snarled the second one to the firstone: "Don't low bridge me."

And in this connection, though outside the agency field, there is an expression which I'm very fond of over at one of the news magazines called "the diagonal nod," it means his opinion falls exactly halfway between "It's great" and "It's lousy," So, naturally everyone over there knows exactly where he stands.

THE BREAKUP of Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca, long rumored, has become fact — or will be fact June 5 when "Show of Shows" takes its summer vacation. Mr. Caesar will star in his own hour-long show. At this writing, it isn't quite known exactly what Miss Coca's talents, one of the most variegated in TV, will be encased in.

The big question is whether Caesar can get along without Coca or Coca without Caesar. Can Martin get along without Lewis or vice versa? Neither Caesar nor Coca, the latter having been around a long time, too, ever hit top stardom until they got together.

The press conference announcing the dissolution of the five-year partnership, one of the most rewarding and popular in show business, was a tearful one and rightly so.

In five years, the Caesar - Coca combine has spoofed just about everything from silent films to "Dragnet." Some of their husband-and-wife routines are classics of authentic humor and deserve to be preserved somewhere like the Museum of Modern Art film library.

The reasons for the break up are simply economic. No one can afford Caesar and Coca and the high-budgeted production of "Show of Shows" all in one package. It's a shame, too. Next thing you know Burns and Allen will be breaking up because George can't afford Gracie.

Some gains raced ahead 2 to 3 points at times, but the great bulk of the plus signs were less than a point. Losses seldom reached down as much as a point.

Judge Advises Razors To Stop Wife Beatings

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UP)—District Judge W. W. McCrory says wives whose husbands come home and beat them up should "show their husbands a good sharp razor."

If they do that, McCrory said "the husbands will jump out the window."

"Some husbands are like tomcats," he said. "They go out and howl and then come home and slap the female around."

McCrory's statement came while he was empaneling a criminal grand jury. He told the jury, he did not think a "murder with malice" indictment would stand against a wife who killed her husband while he was beating her.

Rainbow Hues Are Latest Coiffure Rage in Paris

PARIS (UP) — Rainbow hues highlight the latest hair coloring trend by French women.

At a recent fashion show, one woman wore a real attention-getter—an upswept evening coiffure tinted ruby red. One bathing suit model wore a nymph-like hair-do, tinted a silvery blue-green.

Red, blue and silver sequins appeared in snow white and pale blue coiffures. One mannequin sported a Marie Antionette wig, topped with Fourth of July sparklers.

$10,000 Building Plan Slated by Bucyrus Firm

BUCYRUS — The old Higgins residence on S. Walnut St., formerly occupied by Paulette's Dress Shop, will be remodeled into office suites by the Crawford Estates, Inc., Bucyrus, of which Dale Welling, Bucyrus plumber, is president.

The firm plans to have two complete office suites on the first floor and a third office suite on the second floor. Parking facilities on a 100 by 96 foot lot will be provided on both sides of the building. A permit for the remodeling project, which carries an estimated cost of $10,000 has been issued. Work will be started at once with the completion date set for Sept. 1.

Ohio Drouth Declared 4th Worst in 71 Years

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — C. V. Youngquist, chief of Ohio's division of water, says the 1953 drouth was the fourth worst in 71 years.

And, he warned yesterday, if the drouth breaks this May or June water supplies in underground reservoirs still will be in bad shape.

He listed these deficiencies at observation wells in key spots:

Auglaize County near New Hampshire: 5 feet below normal.

Clark County in Springfield: 2 feet below normal.

Franklin County near Columbus. 4 feet below normal.

Madison County near Mount Sterling: 2 feet below normal.

Miami County near Troy: 5 feet below normal.

Portage County near Windham: 3 feet below normal.

The group approved plans of the Ohio Oil Co. for the construction of a filling station at the corner of Main and Seltzer, Sts., subject to approval of the village engineer, Kenneth Shaffer.

Bloody Battle Fought 10 Years Ago Today

Naval Officer Recalls Saipan Invasion

Editor's Note— Americans will recall the battle for Saipan as one of the fiercest of World War II Today, almost 10 years after U S troops stormed ashore there, the island forms an important link in our Pacific defense network. Here's the story of what Blue Beach, Garapan and the old sugar mill look like today.

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH

SAIPAN (AP)—The invasion beach at Saipan, where U. S. troops fought one of the bloodiest battles in American history 10 years ago this summer, is quiet and peaceful today. On D-Day you couldn't hear yourself think.

That's the way a blue-eyed, red-haired lieutenant commander remembers it

The officer, Paul Bridewell of Jasonville Ind., was beachmaster of Blue Beach when the U. S. 2nd and 4th Marines hit Saipan June 15, 1944

Looking back on that day, Bridwell recalled:

"You remember the intimate things—the friends who didn't make it—the close calls" More than 3,000 didn't make it, and died

There are sharp reminders of that first day's fighting along the white sand beach—the rusting hulk of an amphibious tank, its gun pointed skyward above the blue Pacific like a memorial, and battle debris still visible in the clear water.

On Blue Beach, Bridwell walked toward his old command post Trees are growing up around it

In front are the shanties of a few Saipanese families Leaning against one is a rusted, plugged Japanese machine gun

Red and Blue Beaches were divided—the Marines will remember—by a Japanese-built concrete pier sticking out into the water The Americans added a 150-foot-wide pontoon pier. Only the concrete remains.

The old sugar mill is gone and the sugar warehouse is only a concrete shell.

The Japanese called the town immediately behind the invasion beach Charon Kanoa. Americans and Saipanese call it Chalan Kanoa It's the biggest town on the island

Remember Garapan? That was the biggest town before the fighting. It doesn't even exist today The jungle—everyone here calls it the boonies—has taken over

Chalan Kanoa is quite a city A wide highway that compares favorably with any U S road slices through it.

Many homes have been built In one backyard a papaya tree is growing out of the center of a rusting marine amphibious troop carrier Bridwell glanced at the markings and said:

"Marines—third wave"

Bridwell recalled an incident from the second day of the invasion

"A Jap plane flew the entire length of the beach and dumped about two bushels of hand grenades, but he forgot to pull the pins"

On the broad road to Old Garapan the boonies have taken over both sides of the road. Old warehouses, Quonset huts and a chapel steeple jut out from the brush.

The U S military developed a large warehouse and dock area near Old Garapan. The island command still operates a couple of LCMs to run supplies but otherwise the area is abandoned.

On the beach is a rotting Japanese sampan, with U S markings Across the road natives are tearing down several large Army ordnance warehouses for scrap—ironically—for Japan.

Beyond Garapan large stacks of metal are piled up awaiting shipment One piece of scrap a battered, rusted tank, bears the faint nickname "Crusader"

Off the pier an old Japanese freighter sunk by U S forces is still clearly visible. Bridwell pointed to some metal piled up on a reef offshore.

"That's the barges the Japs used in mounting a counter amphibious landing We clobbered them"

The boat poll lagoon and small craft repair yard are still there Beside the lagoon six LCMs, stripped of engines and brass, are rotting

The jungle is winning back most of Saipan, except for the few spots being farmed by some of the 5,500 natives who live here and the few installations used by the 106-man Navy force stationed on the island

Women work around the village and children are everywhere The men seem to do nothing but sit around the house or yard.

"The men are warriors and lovers," Bridwell explained

Democrats Call For Showdown With McCarthy

ST PETERSBURG, Fla (AP)—The chairman of the Democratic National Committee told a party rally here that the American people will show their displeasure at the polls next November unless President Eisenhower shows Sen McCarthy who is boss.

Stephen A. Mitchell hit time and again at the differences between Republicans themselves on how to handle McCarthy and his methods of investigating communism

"The Eisenhower Republicans are coddling McCarthy to the detriment of our country and its citizens," he told 900 persons at a Pinellas County rally last night

"The people of the United States will not allow this Republican senator to disrupt our constitutional system or deprive citizens of their constitutional rights . . ." he continued,

"The people of America will support the Republican President against McCarthy, if he (Eisenhower) will lead And if he will not lead, the Republican President will hear from the people next November"

Later on he said

"The fact is that the President has made an unholy alliance with Sen. McCarthy for the purpose of the next election"

Schneider's To Celebrate

Sheet Metal Shop Here In Business Fifty Years

Fifty years in the sheet metal business in Marion will be celebrated March 15 by Schneider's Sheet Metal Shop, 185 N. Main St.

It was March 15, 1904 when John Schneider, father of the present owner, and Frank M. Beverly bought Joseph Wren's tinware shop and changed the name to Beverly and Schneider's. Three names, three buildings and 50 years later the shop is still in the Schneider family, under Leroy Schneider's ownership.

IN THE OLD days it was a metal shop and partial hardware selling stoves, ranges and kitchenware. Today the shop handles heating, roofing, sheet and industrial metal work.

Since 1912, when John Schneider bought out Beverly, the shop has been strictly in the family. Leroy joined brother Charles in helping his dad in 1918 and soon the store was renamed Schneider and Sons.

The shop was at 105 S. Main St. or 115 S. Main when the numbering system was changed, until 1928 when it was moved to 216 Forest St. After the elder Schneider died, the shop became Schneider Bros. Leroy took over as sole owner in 1948 and moved into the present store the next year.

THE SHOP'S STAFF jumped from two in the early days to 22 during World War II, back to the five employes at present. Prices have jumped too.

"About 35 years ago slate roofs were popular and cost $7.50 a square," Schneider said. "Today they're around $75 a square, almost too expensive to afford."

Asphalt shingles have risen from $7.50 a square, when they became popular 25 years ago, to $18-$20 a square today," Schneider said.

—:—

SOME OF THE burring tools and a shear used in the first shop still are in operation today. And those tools were about 50 years old when John Schneider got them in 1904.

The firm's transportation however, has been modernized.

"Back in the old days we had two horses and a wagon," Schneider said. "Now we've got three trucks and a car."

Little Damage Reported In Two Fire Runs Here

Marion city firemen were called out twice Tuesday to two small, no loss fires. At 1:55 p.m., Mark St. station firemen went to the residence of Mrs. Nelda Owens of 428 N. State St. when smoke filled the house. Firemen found the smoke came from a V-belt on a blower on the gas furnace which had caught fire. Only loss was to the belt, they said.

The other alarm was at 7:27 p.m. when Mark St. and Central Station firemen answered a call to the Robert A. Taft Junior High School. They found a small bonfire deside the sidewalk at the front of the building evidently started by children playing with matches. There was no loss, they said.

Highway Patrolmen Stop Four Motorists in Area

Four traffic arrests were reported today by the Marion post of the state highway patrol.

Arrested simultaneously for reckless operation were two Cardington youths, Charles B. Lindsay, 18, and Richard C. McQuistion, 20. Both were cited to appear before Judge W. Dexter Hazen in Municipal Court Saturday.

Also arrested were Donald E. Wanamaker of Dayton, speeding, fined $15 and costs by Judge Hazen and Robert V. Dial, 38, of Detroit, for failure to register his motor vehicle. Dial appears in Municipal Court today.

MAY REPLACE MARILYN. Sheree North (above), a Broadway musical stage actress, has been signed by 20th Century Fox and may get the role in "Pink Tights" which Marilyn Monroe turned down when she was suspended by the studio. Plenty of Gunfire But Nobody Hurt in Attempted Holdup

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A man walked into the H. T. King grocery store last night, pulled a gun and announced: "This is a holdup."

County police said this is what followed:

Mrs. King grabbed for his gun and the man fired twice, missing both times.

Mrs. King then picked up a pistol and fired twice at the holdup man, missing both times.

King joined the shooting with a third gun and fired three or four times, but missed with all.

The holdup man fled.

Nobody was hurt, and nobody was robbed.

Eye Do-It-Yourself Market

Wallpaper Makers Plan Big Merchandising Drive

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Wallpaper makers say they are going to take on the paint people in earnest this spring.

Citing what they believe to be a swing back to papered rooms—ever since the American public rediscovered Williamsburg, Va., and other colonial scenes — wallpaper makers announce today they've got up a half million dollar kitty for the newly-formed Wallpaper Council to use in promotion.

They are out after a larger share of the growing do-it-yourself market — with methods which they claim make it all but impossible for you to wind up with more paper on yourself than on the wall.

They will tout plastic-treated papers which they say can be scrubbed many times, and therefore last much longer than older methods of covering walls.

And, along with the classic American designs, they have some fancy new ones—such as a forest of television antennas on roofs roosters sipping at a bar presided over by a chicken with a cocktail shaker, or one playing up the antique car fad. Let your taste be your guide.

Decorators trace the revival of interest in wallpaper to the many projects of restoring colonial houses and towns around the country. The thousands of visitors to these places get a better idea of how wallpaper looks in a house than ever they can by viewing it in rolls in the stores.

The early wallpapers first were reproduced for the restorations, then offered to the public by the wallpaper companies. High-styling gave the industry a big boost

The makers, however, stress much of the recent gain in their business is due to what they call "more technical improvements in wallpaper in the last two years than in the previous 30 years."

Paint manufacturers aren't too frightened, however. They can point to a rise in annual sales of interior-wall paint from 100 million dollars before the war to 400 million or more now, or eight times the volume of paper.

Both rivals can thank the big postwar housing boom for most of their gains.

Rule by Fear

As the result of the shooting incident in the House of Representatives Monday afternoon, every visitor, to the Capitol from now on will have to go through a dreary process of obtaining and presenting credentials.

Hours of work will be added to the schedules of both representatives and senators and their staffs. Every would-be visitor who looks as if he might belong to a faction willing to use violence will be under automatic suspicion.

Even school children will have to be certified before they can witness the symbolic function of popular freedom—Congress in session. And it goes without saying that for months to come no legislator will be unmindful of the possibility that other assassins may do what was done Monday afternoon.

This is how it would be under rule by fear. This is how it always must be when men stand in the shadow of death while carrying on the duties of government. Only the most courageous can put the thought of danger out of their minds.

Every president of the United States must learn against his will that his life is in jeopardy because of the office he holds; Harry Truman might have been killed in 1950 by representatives of the same outfit behind the House incident Monday. Franklin D. Roosevelt was seated beside Chicago's Mayor Cermak when he was fatally wounded by an assassin's bullet on Feb. 15, 1933.

There are times when it seems as though the highest accomplishment of human beings may be their ability to suppress fear of their own kind for intervals of increasing length.

No More Drifting

The five-week debate on the question raised by Sen. Bricker about the possible supremacy of international agreements over domestic law brought out unanimous agreement that this never should be allowed.

The only point of disagreement was how to phrase a constitutional amendment which would prohibit this without making complication in the field of foreign policy.

The inability of phrase-makers to come up with anything that would be satisfactory to two-thirds of the U.S. Senate was a defeat for them, not for the principle that the civil rights of U.S. citizens cannot be destroyed by international agreements.

On that there is strong and deep conviction. No U.S. senator charged with responsibility for advising and consenting to treaties, no chief executive with authority to make an executive agreement and no member of the judiciary can fail to be aware of an American consensus on this vital matter.

There is no danger now that the United States might drift into the danger which Sen. Bricker detected when the United Nations began to fool with proposals for limiting freedom of expression in the United States to suit governments which never had guaranteed such freedom to their citizens.

Knowing the danger, Americans will be on guard against it.

There was no defeat scored in the debate over the constitutional amendment proposed by Sen. Bricker. There was a victory for the American tradition of free discussion and free decision.

The purpose which Sen. Bricker and his associates set out to fulfill has been fulfilled. The drift away from strict constitutionalism has been checked. Legislators, administrators and jurists have been put on guard. The people will not tolerate careless handling of their inalienable American rights in the guise of treaties or executive agreements with other governments.

All Together Now!

A routine story from Washington brings the news to 48 state highway departments, including Ohio's, that a 12½ per cent cut has been recommended by the House Appropriations Committee in the combined budgets of the State, Justice and Commerce departmnts.

How do state highway departments get involved in this? Because federal aid for highways is handled by the Commerce Department. If Congress decides to hold it up, every state highway program must be revised. When state programs are revised, local programs are revised.

All the millions of dollars sent winging to Washington by motorists buying gasoline and paying other federal taxes on their cars (almost a third of the original cost of each new car is federal taxation) must be coaxed back home with a more persuasion than ever.

As things stand now, every really big highway project is a combination of three groups of people all getting together at the same time for the same purpose. The federal people and the state people must be pursuaded by hook or crook to do what the local people usually have been waiting to get done for a long time and still won't get done until they put up more money to offset the handling charges on the money their motorists already have sent to the state capital and to Washington.

Infiltration Technique

Shooting Awakens Congress to Red Treachery

The Communist infiltration forces in the United States, attempting to use Puerto Rican fanatics as a front, have been checkmated in their plot to assassinate President Eisenhower and J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

For several weeks the existence of this assignment, as given to Puerto Rican agents in New York, has been known here but it was not expected that an effort would be made to shoot up Congress.

The connection between the Puerto Rican Nationalists and the Communists has been well established for some time. As early as July 1943, the American Communist party issued a statement which said in part:

"We pledge our full support to the Nationalist party of Puerto Rico and to the complete unification of all the people of Puerto Rico and their various parties around the supreme task of achieving full nationhood.

"We will fulfill our pledge by rallying the people and particularly the labor movement of our country to Puerto Rican independence as a necessary pre-condition to correct relations with all Latin America and as an acid test of the Atlantic Charter. Puerto Rico must and will be free."

WITHIN 60 DAYS after the attempt to assassinate President Truman, the convention of the National Committee of the American Communist party on December 28, 1950, in New York City — the last of the Communist party conclaves to be held — had in it a Puerto Rican Communist delegation and this declaration was made:

"We place the responsibility for the bloodshed on Harry S. Truman and on his watchdog —Munoz-Marin (present governor)."

The resident commissioner of Puerto Rico in Congress, A. Fernosisern, who has a seat but no vote, declared after the attempt to shoot up the U.S. House of Representatives that the whole thing was a "Communist plot" because even the extreme Nationalists knew there was no real issue about Puerto Rican independence. For Commonwealth status has been granted, and the decision as to severance of all ties with the United States is in the hands of the Puerto Rican voters themselves. So he concluded that something else entered into the situation — a Communist effort to produce disharmony.

Certainly as the Latin American Conference is about to convene in Venezuela, it is natural for the Communists to make a demonstration in the hope of convincing the Latin countries generally that the United States is oppressing a Spanish-inhabited country — a kind of "colonialism."

THE SHOOTING in the House chamber came as a shock in more ways than the dramatic occurrence itself would indicate on its face. It suddenly awakened official Washington in all its branches to the fact that the Communist menace cannot be pooh-poohed.

Those who have insisted that security measures hereabouts were superfluous now will feel differently about it, and the one place where there has been great laxity — in and around Congress — may at last get the protection it has always needed.

The Puerto Rican Nationalists, like their brethren in the fanatical fold in other countries, are dupes of the Communists. The Nationalists start out with an emotional crusade in the cause of freedom and independence and are egged on by Communist agents who furnish the money and the brains for intrigue.

At first it was discounted, for instance, that the Nationalists in Iran had any connection with the Communists. Later on the plot became clear. In Guatemala today, the Nationalists insist that they are on their own in their "anti-imperialist" campaigns which take the form of bitter Americanism. The Communists are in the background. The British government saw through the pretense when the same cry was raised in British Guiana.

THE COMMUNISTS are fishing in troubled waters everywhere — in Egypt, Tunisia, Syria, French Morocco, India, Japan, the Philippines, Indonesia and, of course, in Indochina, where they have taken over the movement for independence from the French.

Nationalism is a spontaneous affair as a rule but the Communists furnish the guiding brains and supply the terrorists to complicate the situation.

The murderous attack on the American Congress may have an effect opposite to that which Communist forces inside the United States counted on — it may stiffen the resistance and bring about the passage of even more restrictive measures than are now on the statue books with reference to the freedom of movement in America of Communists and fellow travelers who play a part in the Communist infiltration techniques.

Snarling Dogs

By TRUMAN TWILL

There's a story going around that when the secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, was being raked over the coals by assorted politicians for the way he handled himself in the latest Big Four conference, he eyes brimmed with tears and his lips quivered with resentment.

He had done the best he could. In the judgment of those who knew what he was up against, it had been plenty good enough. But when the little snarling dogs of politics began to yap and snap at his shins he was temporarily overcome by a surge of resentment.

They did not know what he had done, in the first place. And in the second place they did not care; that was not their purpose in ripping him up and down for his alleged shortcomings. They were doing it for the record. They wanted to show they were bigger men than the secretary of state.

It isn't just John Foster Dulles, Dean Acheson or any other secretary of state or individual who is involved in a thing like this. What's involved is the great indoor sport of attributing to every man or woman willing to serve his country and his countrymen in a tough spot all the meannesses possessed by their critics.

The would - be thieves accused their public servants of thievery. The grafters accuse them of dipping into the till.

The liars are positive their servants are practicing the technique of the big lie and the little lie. The hatchet men, throat-cutters, eye-gougers, race haters, warmongers, chiselers and double-talkers all jump on their public servants for doing what they would be doing in the same circumstances.

To be sure, some of the servants are as base and low as their critics. Many of them are the same breed of cats as their detractors. Not infrequently the servants are no better or worse than journeymen politicians who have latched onto a sinecure.

But no less infrequently the servants are men and women doing very well for themselves in their chosen fields, people with everything to lose and nothing to gain by exposing themselves to the reckless pot - shotting of people whose main motive is jealousy.

When it gets so bad that the men tapped for presidential nominations in this republic must consider whether or not they have the capacity for withstanding abuse as their most generous reward for serving their country in a public office it's bad enough to worry about.

When Harry Truman was president he sometimes had to go to the bottom of his list to find an American patriot willing to let himself be torn to pieces by the little snarling dogs of politics when there was an appointive position to be filled.

Things were going to be better under Dwight Eisenhower, it said in the 1952 prospectus, because the little dogs would be reluctant to snap at the large - calibre men Eisenhower would invite to serve their countrymen in Washington.

How long will it be under President Eisenhower until he, too, will be going to the bottom of his list to find men and women willing to take the abuse that is a patriot's reward these days for doing something more exalted than making a fast buck and cursing the government for collecting taxes.

Nicaragua Barrier Against Reds

By Patrick McMahon

MANAGUA, NICARAGUA

The brightest spot in the rather dismal Central American picture is the small and relatively prosperous republic of Nicaragua.

No government in the Western Hemisphere or in the world, for that matter, has supported the U.S. as consistently in international matters as has that of President Anastasio "Tacho" Somoza. No government has countered Communist subversion more wisely and effectively. Red agitators from Guatemala and Costa Rica, who infiltrate all through Central America, have learned to give Nicaragua a wide berth.

Economically, Nicaragua is one of the hemisphere's soundest countries. Its credit is rated A-1. There is no unemployment. Living standards, while very low compared to the U.S. are rising gradually. Somoza appears to be very popular. To the casual observer there seems more building, more new industrial and agricultural development in Nicaragua than in all the rest of Central America put together.

But Somoza today is gravely concerned about the future of his country. He sees it hemmed in between Guatemala, completely dominated by the Communists, and Costa Rica, where the Reds are rapidly gaining control.

SEPARATING Nicaragua and Guatemala are the republics of Honduras and El Salvador, which in the past have acted as a buffer. Presidents Juan Manuel Galvez of Honduras and Oscar Osario of Salvador, although under constant pressure, have thus far succeeded in combating Communist infiltration.

But signs of weakness are already appearing. President Galvez has firmly rejected proposals by his friends that the Honduranean constitution be revised to permit him to run for re-election this fall. The result has been a deep, split in the Nationalist party, which has dominated Honduranean politics for 20 years.

Scenting an opportunity, the old Liberal party is searching for a candidate. Some of the Liberal leaders are reported by very reliable sources in Tegucigalpa to be flirting with Communist labor leaders, seeking a deal for support. Any such deal could have disastrous consequences throughout Central America.

Should the Communists gain a foothold in Honduras, the experts agree, it would only be a question of time before El Salvador, with its poverty, unrest and history of violent political explosions, succumbed. If Honduras and Salvador should go, Nicaragua will be hopelessly engulfed.

But even more than by the situation in Honduras, the Nicaraguans are worried and puzzled by the policy of the U.S. They cannot understand why we should tolerate Moscow-controlled governments right next door to us, at a critical time. Above all, they do not understand why we do not permit our friends at least to protect themselves.

For not only has the State Department firmly rejected applications by the three friendly Central American countries for assistance under our multibillion-arms program, but up until quite recently it even refused to allow them to buy arms in the United States, with their own funds.

AS A RESULT our neighbors to the south are equipped with a heterogeny of weapons obtained from Britain, France, Italy and even Czechoslovakia (via Israel), which would be completely useless in event of total war, cut off from supplies of ammunition.

President Somoza has been urging the U.S. government standardize the arms of the friendly Central American and Caribbean countries, and to provide enough modern weapons for training purposes. He feels that if total war should break out, the Latin American countries should be in a position to undertake their own defense.

Thus far, however, Somoza's proposals have been cooly received in Washington. On the other hand, for years we have maintained a mission in Guatemala, to help train the air force.

Somoza is admired and respected by virtually the entire U.S. colony in Mangagua. Ambassador Whelan regards Somoza as one of the truly great leaders in Central American history. He was liked and respected by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman.

Despite the repeated rebuffs to his government, Nicaragua is the only government in the world that has voted with the United States on every dispute in the United Nations, the organization of American states, and all the other international bodies that have sprung up since World War II.

But despite his record, Somoza is still regarded in some quarters of Washington, and by some elements of the U.S. press as a dictator. A "benevolent" dictator — but still a dictator.

When "Tacho" Somoza first became president of Nicaragua, the country had been ripped by almost continuous bloody political strife for more than a half century. Twice within 20 years we sent in the Marines to try to halt the bloodshed and restore a semblance of order.

Somoza did restore order. He gave his country 20 years of political stability. In the words of Ambassador Whelan, he wrought economic miracles, and with very little outside assistance.

IT IS TRUE that in the early days some of Somoza's methods fell a little short of the ideological standards of some of his U.S. critics. For many years when a young man, he lived in Philadelphia, he learned American business methods there, and transported them to Nicaragua.

Sometimes, when his early policies are being criticized, Somoza will dryly remark that he also learned something about politics, while he was living in Philadelphia.

But whatever his early methods, Nicaragua today is just as democratic as any country in Latin America. Somoza holds office as result of a sweeping victory in what the U.S. colony describes as "just as free an election as those we have back home." He has taken opposition leaders into his cabinet. He permits a vigorous opposition press to criticize his government, freely. There are fewer soldiers and military police in Managua than any capital including Washington.

Somoza's continuous support of the U. S. doesn't stem from his personal feeling of friendship, (both of his sons were educated in the U.S.) and certainly not from servility.

A tough political realist, Somoza simply feels that the destiny of his small nation is inextricably linked with ours, and that in self interest, Nicaragua must support the U.S. whether we are right or wrong.

Many of the shrewdest observers in Central America believe that Somoza may be the decisive force that can halt the Communist encroachment next door in Central America. But the effectiveness of his efforts will depend largely on the understanding and support he gets from the U.S. public and Department of State.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Today's Morale Lifter

One of the world's largest makers of merry-go-rounds says business is booming and that his orders are away ahead of last year. . . . This cheers us up no end, as we like to see carrousels figuring in our business charts and tables depicting the economic situation. . . . The mere mention of a carrousel in the economic picture gives us a lift not obtainable through reference to steel mills, auto factories and oil refineries. . . . The more merry-go-rounds there are in 1954 the more organ tunes, the more brass rings, the more summer romances and the more fun. . . . (Fun dropped 18 per cent the first two months of 1954, and it was not due to regional situations, or high inventories. Personally we had no fun inventory to speak of and had cleaned our shelves of it early last winter.)

—:—

We were talking to a favorite economist about the significance of the boom in merry - go - rounds, and it was his view that it should be regarded as cheering. Except, perhaps, from some opponents of Eisenhower who are against any cheering news. They won't even admit the merry-go-round business has picked up. Senators Paul Douglas and Wayne Morse, in fact, insist that the whole carrousel industry is in a major depression. (They also contend that things are not good in the ferris wheel, chute-the - chutes and roller coaster businesses.) "Don't you think that in the case of the roller coasters it may be just a dip or a sharp decline?" we asked. "We won't settle for a dip even on roller coasters," they said.

Another Senator, who has been able to predict nothing but a big bust, says carrousel dealers are overstocked and will let anybody have one at a cut price. (All you have to do is to shop around the used-carrousel lots.) "The chute-the-chute people never had it so good as they did under the Democrats," this man stated with emphasis. "What's happened since Ike came? You can't get a decent allowance on an old chute-the-chute at the salesroom and chute-the-chute dealers are in a panic." He said chute-the-chute loadings had declined 23 per cent.

"Isn't this due perhaps to the government having put so many chute-the-chutes in cold storage to keep the price up?" we asked.

"You're thinking of butter, wheat, eggs, jukeboxes and pinball machines," he snapped.

"Don't you tell me that I'm thinking of," we replied. "It's nearly spring. I saw a robin today and I'm thinking of chute-the-chutes."

"The whole situation in merry - go - rounds, chute-the-chutes, ferris wheels and roller coasters is terrible," he declared. "The government will have to step in and do something."

"You just want to see Ike stepping into a merry-go-round," we said, "and while it is in motion."

He denounced us as a reactionary, a capitalist and a fellow who would like to see Eisenhower get along. "Wait and see," he said as he departed. "Sell every merry-go-round you have or you'll be ruined!"

"I find on my return from Germany that there is some confusion as to just what really happened at the Big Four meeting." . . . Secretary Dulles. That's the understatement of the decade. . . .

Sir Gladwyn Jebb has left America after four years at the United Nations. . . . He was perhaps the most fascinating spokesman there for our side, a picture of poise and patience, but too much of a Book of Etiquette follower for the type of fighting required in battling the Russians. . . . Jebb jabbed when he should have swung. . . .

The big auto companies have warned their auto dealers against unloading new cars through "bootlegger" used-car lots. . . . But the answer of some dealers is: "If we have to take on more than we can sell what are we supposed to do, eat 'em?" . . . Friends of Joe McCarthy are giving this advice to Secretary Stevens: "Never try to throw a man out at second until you have the ball in your hand." . . . We don't dig the fury expressed by some writers over what they call the "rough tactics" of Joe McCarthy in the hunt for enemies of the Republic.

Bucyrus Firm Handed County Fair Contract

BUCYRUS — S. A. Schieber and Son, Bucyrus building contractors, have been awarded the contract for construction of a junior fair building at the Crawford County fairgrounds here, county fair board members announced here today.

The Schieber firm submitted a bid of $19,600 for the revised construction plans while Frank Teynor, Bucyrus, bid $19,990. Original estimate for an 80 by 160 foot building using steel trusses was $27,000.

Fair board members reduced the building's width to 74 feet and substituted wood truss for the steel trusses to reduce the cost and comply with state regulations. Eight contractors bid on the original project with Schieber and Teynor as the low bidders being asked to submit new bids for the revised construction plans.

The Schieber firm construction of the concrete block building, which will house a livestock judging arena, will start about April 1, weather permmitting. Completion date is July 1.

The fair will run from Aug. 3-7.

Total Found Still Mystery

Reds in Government Still Major Issue

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's still a mystery just how many disloyal government workers the Eisenhower administration has found since taking over from the Truman administration in January 1953.

The Republicans campaign in 1952 on a promise to get Communists out of the government. Some are talking of making Communists-in-government a campaign issue again this year in the November congressional elections.

Demand Exact Figures

The Democrats, with a large political stake in the actual number of disloyal persons found, have demanded exact figures. Newsmen repeatedly have asked for figures as a matter of public information.

The latest information, given yesterday by Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission, still didn't provide an answer.

He told the Senate's Civil Service Committee 2,427 "security risks" had been removed from the government payroll under the Republicans. But he said he didn't know whether a single one had been fired for disloyalty, subversion or communism.

He had gathered his figures from the government agencies which did the firing after the committee, made up of Democrats and Republicans, asked him for answers.

Not Necessarily Subversive

He said 383 of the 2,427 were persons whose files contained something of a subversive nature. Then he added these people were not necessarily subversive and said he didn't know whether this subversive information was sufficient reason for getting them out of their jobs.

Later Young told newsmen he knew of no way of finding out whether subversion was the controlling factor in getting the 383 out of government service. A little later Sen. Monroney (D - Okla) said:

"I guess the only way we are going to find out is by asking each of the security officers in the agencies."

Each agency has an official charged with getting rid of those found to be security risks. Some of these security officers have been questioned by other congressional committees. And some of their information has been vague.

Background of Issue

This is the background:

In 1947 former President Truman set up a program for getting Communists or people who might injure the country out of government jobs. It was a double kind of program:

1. Loyalty—This was to get rid of Communists or fellow travelers in any government job or agency.

2. Security—This was to get rid of certain kinds of people—like drunks, homosexuals who might be blackmailed or blabbermouths—when found in a very limited number of agencies which had secrets involving national security, like the Defense and State departments and the Atomic Energy Commission.

When President Eisenhower came into the White House he gave to Atty. Gen. Brownell the job of drawing up a new kind of program.

Last April Eisenhower produced the program. It abolished the two classifications of Truman—the distinction between loyalty cases and security problems — and lumped both in one, called a security program.

nder this a Communist, drunk, homosexual, a person convicted of a felony or misdemeanor or a blabbermouth could be fired as a security risk any place he was found in the government, whether or not his agency dealt in secrets.

Breakdown Needed

Total figures on those released thus would not show how many were Communists and how many fell into other classes unless the administration provided a breakdown.

Last October the White House, in its first announcement, said 1,456 security risks had been fired. The President on Jan. 7 upped the figure of 2,200.

Newsmen asked Eisenhower for a breakdown. He referred them to Brownell. Brownell referred questioners to Young. Young refused and passed the ball back to the White House. It's still bouncing.

THREE YOUTHS INDUCTED

BUCYRUS — Three youths comprised Crawford County's March draft call and were inducted into the army at Fort Hayes in Columbus, Monday, Mrs. Mildred Melcher, draft board clerk, announced here today.

The trio included Samuel Pfahler of near Tiro, Robert Fike, New Washington, and Wayne Dininger of near Wooster, a former county resident.

CANDIDATE. Lovely and brainy Mrs. Fred Rosen, 19, Port Arthur, Tex., has announced her intention of trying to become Texas' second woman governor. The first was Ma Ferguson, back in 1925. Mrs. Rosen, wife of an industrial executive, has joined several Port Arthur women's organizations and reportedly has a large following. Greenwood Night Will Be Observed At Union Services

Greenwood Church Night will be observed at the union Evangelical United Brethren Gospel Truth Crusade service tonight at Oakland Church with recognition of members from the Greenwood congregation and their guests. Representatives from other churches cooperating in the special meetings attended together on previous nights. An award will be given the pastor having highest percentage of his church membership in attendance. The five churches of the denomination in the community are participating in the crusade.

Rev. Morton Dorsey of Chillicothe is the preacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bierce of Logansport, Ind., are the music evangelists. Mr. Bierce is soloist and song leader, and Mrs. Bierce is the accompanist.

The sermon by Rev. Dorsey last night was based on the eleventh verse from the third chapter of Matthew, the words of John the Baptist, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but He that cometh after me is mighter than I whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire."

Speaking on the "two baptisms of water an dof fire," the preacher said that "The mode of baptism is not important. Water baptism is the outward sign of an inward work which follows repentance. You remember the baptism of water, so will you remember the baptism of the Holy Ghost. After repentance you have the promise of being filled with the Holy Spirit. He comes to abide only by your invitation. He is to be sovereign. Your whole life must be completely yielded. The second baptism is as much greater than the first as Jesus is to John and water is to fire. In the baptism of the Holy Ghost, hearts are purified."

PORE JOKE

LAWTON, Okla. (UP) — Sheriff Everett Hale of Comanche County took a "take-it-easy" attitude toward catching the thief who stole 22 hogs. "I'm just going to sit around my office and wait for one of those pigs to squeal on somebody," he said.

Two Akronites Held for Stark County Holdup

Suspicions Aroused As Pair Flash Large Bankroll in Tavern

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A large bankroll flashed to pay for two beers led to the capture yesterday of two Akron men less than two hours after the Uniontown Savings and Loan Assn. was robbed of about $1,800.

Police said most of the money taken in the robbery at nearby Uniontown was recovered on their persons and under a rock near the grocery store-bar where the men were arrested.

Stark County Sheriff Harry W. Grossglaus identified the men as James Wesley Johnson, 19, and Argil Dell Osborne, 26, both of Akron. He said they will be charged today.

The arrest followed a tip by a customer at the grocery store, near Auttman, who had been told by a store clerk that some men were flashing a large amount of money.

Deputies arrived as the men were leaving. One man surrendered in an automobile, and the other ran, but was captured quickly.

Following footprints in the snow, deputies found some of the stolen money under a rock.

Mrs. Rhuie Carle, a teller, identified the men as the robbers, deputies said. She said one man—carrying a pistol—walked into the financial institution an hour before closing time and told her:

"This is a stickup, no fooling, lady."

She told police she handed over currency, saying "This is all I've got," and saw him enter a black automobile and speed away from the village 12 miles north of Canton.

Tax Cut

proposed by Reed. Republican leaders, however, said they did not expect an all-out fight by the administration.

Humphrey praised cooperation between the Treasury and the committee on other issues. Only yesterday, the committee voted 22-2 to approve an administration request to cancel two billion dollars in annual corporation income tax cuts, also scheduled under present law for April 1.

The recommendation to retain the present top corporation of 52 per cent, rather than permitting it to decline to 47 per cent, was thrown into an 800-page bill to overhaul most of the nation's tax laws. House leaders plan to bring the excise bill to the floor first.

Reed's bill would cut to 10 per cent, effective April 1, these present excise rates:

The 25 per cent tax on long-distance telephone calls and leased wires, saving taxpayers an estimated 250 million dollars a year.

20 per cent "luxury" tax on furs, jewelry, cosmetics, women's handbags and luggage, saving an additional 250 million.

20 per cent tax on admissions to movies, sports events, night clubs and other entertainments, saving 175 million.

20 per cent tax on cameras, photographic equipment, light bulbs, club dues and safe deposit boxes, saving about 57 million.

Polio Foundation To Let States Select Test Areas

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has decided to let individual states announce the areas selected for tests of the newly developed polio vaccine.

The foundation said yesterday that state health authorities will announce the areas on a staggered basis, with first tests to begin this month. Original plans called for the foundation to name the test areas.

Harpster High Group Enjoys Singing

Teenage Vocalists Find Warbling Isn't Work But Just Plain Fun

UPPER SANDUSKY—The Harpster Boys' Quartet is one of the most active groups in a most complete program of musical instruction and activity at Harpster High School, near here.

Tenors of this vocal group are seniors, Don Jury and Ron Hills. The bass singers are juniors, Bob Hawk and Larry Bryant. Their instructor and accompanist is Miss Jane Stump, Harpster High music teacher.

Singing isn't work or "study" for these boys. They enjoy both their frequent public appearances and almost daily practice sessions. Organized a little more than a year ago for school musical programs, they continue to practice and perform publicly throughout the summer, and during the current school year have made many appearances both in connection with their school activities and a variety of outside invitations.

THEY PRESENT A VARIETY of typical quartet selections and have a repertoire of 35 four-part vocal arrangements. Outside appearences in the past year have included programs at three county fairs, the Ohio State Fair, district and county-wide Farm Bureau meetings, community institutes and festivals, church services and Booster Club meetings.

On only one occasion did they vocalize for pay. Last July 4, the group won a $100 savings bond in an amateur contest conducted in connection with the community celebration of Independence Day.

Three of the four boys are planning to attend college and the other is going to stay right on the farm. Of the three who expect to attend college, one will prepare for a career in business, one for a post as a forest ranger and one plans to be a music teacher.

World Day of Prayer Service Slated Here by Church Women

"That They May Have Life," theme for annual World Day of Prayer service sponsored in Marion Friday afternoon by the Marion County Council of Church Women, will be presented by representatives of many co-operating churches. Place of the service will be Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church, and the host pastor, Rev. Clyde R. Wendell, will be the speaker. A double mixed quartet from Harding High School will sing.

Joining many thousands of Christian believers in this country and in 118 other nations around the world, "united in a bond of prayer on the first Friday in the Lenten season, the Marion observance will be among approximately 19,000 scheduled to take place in this country alone. Founded originally as a day of prayer for world missions in this country in 1887, the observance spread to Canada in 1920 and became worldwide seven years later.

In recognizing "the important part which world missions has in the solution of world problems," the General Department of Church Women of the National Council of Churches, of which the community councils are a part, allocates the offerings received in equal amounts between foreign missions and home missions. The latter division includes work among American Indians, low - income farm communities and migrants, and the foreign division projects include supplying of Christian literature for women and children, education of Christian leaders in interdenominational colleges in the Orient, and service by the Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students to approximately 30,000 students who have come to this country for their education. New projects will be set up if increased offerings will make the added work possible.

Time of the service in Marion will be 2 o'clock. Mrs. Darrell Vermillion, world missions chairman of the local council, will be in charge. The devotional message by the host pastor will be followed by the music by the Harding High School group. Included in the octet are Jean Bibbee, Sally Barton, Dolores Cosey, Sally Waddell, Paul Foster, Glen Dalton, Dave Hanning, and Joe Snouffer, and Carolyn Jones is accompanist.

Scripture will be presented by Mrs. Richard Zachman, Mrs. Mary Huff, and Mrs. George Leedom, and prayers will be offered by Mrs. J. B. Holloway, Mrs. Edith Bush, Mrs. Lulu Williamson, Mrs. O. R. Cross, Mrs. Harrison Ludwig, and Mrs. Clark Fouts. Mrs. J. W. Baker will preside at the organ, and Mrs. Ludwig will direct singing. Ushers representing the various churches will include Mrs. Grace Zachman, Mrs. Elmer Weimer, Mrs. Clifford Barlett, Mrs. H. W. Tabor, Mrs. Glen Riddle, and Mrs. Ray Martin.

Ike

there is no subversive penetration.

"2. In opposing communism, we are defeating ourselves if either by design or through carlessness we use methods that do not conform to the American sense of justice and fair play.

"3. The conscience of America will clearly discern when we are exercising proper vigilance without being unfair. That conscience is reflected in the body of the United States Congress. We can be certain that its members will respond to Americans' convictions and beliefs in this regard."

Vital Problems

Eisenhower said there are vital foreign and domestic problems confronting the nation which "deserve the undivided and incessant attention of a Congress, of the executive branch, of the public information media of our nation, of our schools and even of our churches." He added:

"I regard it as unfortunate when we are diverted from these grave problems—of which one is vigilance against any kind of internal subversion—through disregard of the standards of fair play recognized by the American people.

"These incidents are all the more useless and unfortunate in view of the basic dedication of every loyal American to the preservation and advancement of America's safety, prosperity and well being."

Rights Not Issue

Eisenhower said he and everybody in the executive departments recognizes Congress' right to "investigate into every phase of our public operations."

Observing that there ought to be a true spirit of cooperation between the branches of government, he said such cooperation "is possible only in an atmosphere of mutual respect."

The President said that when he was testifying as a military officer he never saw any member of Congress "guilty of disrespect toward the public servants who were appearing before him." He said he intends to preserve the tradition of mutual respect between executive witnesses and members of Congress.

Praises Military Leaders

Eisenhower said that the courage and devotion of military leaders had been proved in peace as well as in war.

Then he said:

"I am certain that no one in any governmental position wants to have his own utterances interpreted as questioning the lasting debt that all of us as Americans hold to the officers and enlisted men and women of the armed services. In this tribute to the services I mean to include Gen. Zwicker, who was decorated for gallantry in the field."

Eisenhower took another indirect swipe at McCarthy in replying to the first question put to him when he finished reading his prepared statement.

The President was asked for comment on McCarthy's demand for an explanation of why R. W. Scott McLeod was stripped of his hiring-firing authority by Secretary of State Dulles.

'Dulles' Responsibility'

Eisenhower shot back that the responsibility for administrative assignments within any particular department is the sole responsibility of the head of the department, and no one else.

McCarthy called last night for a moratorium on statements between him and his critics.

The Wisconsin senator turned aside a thrust by Leonard W. Hall, Republican National Committee chairman, who told reporters after a White House conference with the President yesterday:

"My feeling about it is this: while Joe McCarthy is fighting communism I go along and we all go along. When he begins to attack persons who are fighting communism just as conscientiously as he is, I can't go along with him."

Hall added he did not think anyone would say that "generals in our Army are not fighting communism."

The San Francisco Port of Embarkation loaded more than 11,000,000 tons of cargo and moved 500,000 members of the Armed Forces and civilians to the Far East during the war in Korea.

Senate Action On Treaty Issue Praised by Ike

Possible To Devote Complete Attention to Adminstration Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower expressed pleasure today that the Senate had rejected a constitutional amendment to curb treaty powers.

Eisenhower told of his gratification at a news conference in which he spoke out in the McCarthy-Stevens controversy by calling for fair play in congressional investigations of internal communism, and covered a number of other subjects.

Last Friday night the Senate voted down, 60-31, a constitutional amendment proposed by Sen. George (D-Ga) as a substitute for an already dead plan by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to curb the President's power to make international pacts. The vote was just barely enough to defeat the George plan.

Now, the President said today, it will be possible to devote full attention to carrying out the administration's program to build a stronger America.

On other points, Eisenhower:

1. Refused to take a personal position on the tax issue—specifically whether he favors a ceiling of 10 per cent on excise (sales) levies. He said Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey had issued a statement on those matters and suggested that newsmen study it. Humphrey's statement opposed sweeping reductions now in excises.

2. Declared he is not ready to say whether he favors outlawing the Communist Party in the United States. He ordered a study of that matter shortly after taking office, the President said, and the lawyers apparently disagree as to whether such a step would be constitutional.

3. Emphasized again that he never has used the word subversive in discussing the 2,200 persons he said had been separated from federal jobs in his security program. That was in comment on disclosure by the Civil Service Commission this week that of a revised total of 2,427, only 383 were found to have information of a subversive nature in their personnel files. He repeated that in his opinion all of those let out were bad security risks.

TO CONFER WITH CHIANG

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—U.S. Under Secretary of the Army John Slezak arrived today. He will confer tomorrow with president Chiang Kai-shek.

Like camels, giraffes can go for long periods without water.

Lenten Meditations

This is one in a series of Lenten meditations prepared by the members of the Marion County Ministerial Association for publication in The Star.

By REV. H. V. FALOR
Pastor of Oakland EUB Church

"He that taketh not his cross and followeth after Me, is not worthy of Me."—Matt. 10:38.

As we enter another lenten period the attention of the whole Christian world should turn with concern to the thought of cross-bearing. Christ's cross was far heavier than any He asks us to bear. But as truly as His was unavoidable, if salvation was to be provided for us; just so surely is the cross which He appoints for us necessary if we would experience His redeeming power.

He asks us to take, not make our cross. We are not to fashion it, murmur about it, despise it, or faint under it; but deliberately, courageously and patiently to bear it. Nothing is said about our ever laying it down.

Whatever it may contain of reproach, suffering and sacrifice for others' good and His glory, we rest with Him. We are to persist in bowing our whole self beneath its blessed burden; remembering that better men than we have born it, and that there is no disciple, no crown, no reward without it. His grace will always be equal to the full weight of the cross He assigns to you.

PRAYER: Our Father, let the love that prompted Christ to carry His cross for me, move me to bear my cross faithfully for Thee. Amen!

Conference Set On Ohio Bell's Rate Boost Bid

Settlement Will Be Sought at Meeting Scheduled March 19

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Officials of Ohio Bell Telephone Co., who want a nine million dollar annual rate increase, and representauves of 176 communities fighting the boost will meet here March 19.

They decided yesterday to try to effect a settlement.

Representatives of the subscriber communities met with members of the company and the state utilities commission to try to "narrow down the issues."

The cities' representatives decided they want the commission to hire a rate expert. State law says the company can charge a price giving it a fair rate of return based on its valuation.

Richard O. Gantz, Akron assistant city law director, asked a question about this "fair rate of return."

Then Robert Moulton, commission chairman, told the representatives — from Columbus, Toledo, Cleveland, Dayton and Springfield —the commission has accountants and engineers, but no rate expert.

The commission is compiling a report on the company's valuation. That figure is used in computing rates the company can charge customers. The report is expected to be ready by March 10.

Security

the announcement of over-all figures on "security" separations which they claim leaves the impression with the country that most were Reds allowed by the Truman administration to remain on the govermet payroll.

They have made repeated demands for breakdowns showing how many federal employes quit or were forced to resign for perversion, loose talk, drunkenness and unreliability, as well as for disloyalty.

Claim Reports Misleading

After listening to Young, committee Democrats said they are now more sure than ever that some Republicans have been trying to mislead the American people in this connection.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC), senior Democrat on the group, said, "They started out with 1,456 and then raised it to 2,200. Both those are out the window. Now they're down to 383 and even that figure is all scrambled up."

Young said about 19 per cent of the "security risks" let go had subversive information in their files, 10 per cent were sex perverts, 30 per cent had criminal records, and 41 per cent were regarded as unreliable under other standards of the Eisenhower security program.

Monroney Puzzled

Monroney said in an interview he is puzzled by Young's assertion that he knows no way of finding out whether subversion was the controlling factor in the separation of the 383 from government service.

The Oklahoman said that raises the question whether the administration ever should have used the figure. He said the only way he knows to get to the bottom of the matter is to call in departmental security officers.

Young said he was sure a worker was not listed with the 383 unless the subversive data in his file was of a "substantial nature."

However, Monroney said Young was unable to supply any information as to how these files were evaluated.

He said it appeared to him that cases like those listed as "security risks" by the Republicans were handled by the Democrats under an "unsuitability" provision in civil service regulations.

The Truman administration got rid of 24,300 employes on these grounds in 1951 and another 23,800 in 1952, he said, adding that last year only 17,800 were separated by the Eisenhower administration in this way.

The British radio industry employs about 135,000 people.

PUERTO RICO GOVERNOR CALLS ON PRESIDENT. Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico talks with President Eisenhower at the White House after flying from San Juan. The governor came to Washington to express regret to President Eisenhower and other officials over the shooting of five congressmen by Puerto Rican nationalists.

Shooting

though he is not out of danger and "we must still consider him as seriously ill." The congressman was still in an oxygen tent but his breathing was reported better.

Roberts and Fallon, in the same hospital were reported by the doctor to be in satisfactory condition.

U.S Dist. Atty. Leo Rover arranged to present the cases of the four Puerto Ricans to a federal grand jury today, estimating it would require no more than a day.

Oddly, Rover, then a practicing attorney here, was assigned by the court to defend Oscar Collazo when he and another Puerto Rican Nationalist tried to assassinate former President Truman in 1950. Collazo was sentenced to die, but Truman later commuted the sentence to life.

Intent To Kill Charged

The four involved in Monday's incident are charged with assault with intent to kill. There are charges for each of the five House members shot down, making the maximum penalty upon conviction 75 years in prison—15 years on each count.

Those held are Mrs. Lolita Lebron, 34-year-old divorcee and acknowledged leader of the quartet; Rafael C. Miranda, 25; Andres F. Cordero, 29, and Irving Flores Rodriguez, 28, all of New York City.

Their avowed purpose in invading the House with pistols and shooting wildly was to call attention to the Nationalists' campaign for Puerto Rican independence—a cause which Puerto Ricans have rejected at the polls several times.

Called Patriots

Julio Pinto Gandia, head of the New York wing of the Nationalist party, referred to the four as "patriots" in a statement issued there, and he added: "We shall do all in our power to aid and defend our four compatriots in their hour of trial."

But Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico flew here hurriedly and told President Eisenhower all Puerto Ricans protest "this outrage." He told newsmen he had no proof Communists were involved but that "the behavior of these people" indicated a possibility of Communist activity.

In New York, Mrs. Lebron's employer, Harold Werner, said FBI agents had asked his aid in keeping a watch on the woman.

"Just last week," he said, "two FBI agents visited me to warn me that Mrs. Lebron was under close surveillance because of her activities as a suspected Communist . . . They told me she had been watched for a long time by the FBI."

FBI officials declined comment. Chicago FBI chief Guy Bannister said Mrs. Lebron's brother, Gonzalo Lebron, 30, is under surveillance. He added there is no evidence that he had any connection with the shooting. The Sun-Times quoted Lebron as saying he fears "FBI arrest at any moment."

baum said, "You're a brute."

Under Lutz' cross examination the supermarket executive went over in detail the account he gave yesterday of the events at the time of his wife's death.

Sternbaum's Father Dies, Victim of Cancer

MANSFIELD, Ohio, (AP) — Carl Sternbaum, 66, president of Sternbaum Food Markets, inc., and father of E. Max Sternbaum, now on trial for first degree murder here, died in his home early today.

The elder Sternbaum had been bedfast for the past month. His death was due to cancer.

Max Sternbaum, who is being held in jail pending completion of his trial, was permitted to visit his father last night between 7 and 8 p.m. He is accused of slaying his wife Leah in 1952.

Carl Sternbaum had been in business in Mansfield since 1321. Sternbaum food markets are situated in Willard, Mansfield, Ashland, Fremont and Norwalk.

County System To Get $35,541 In School Aid

Marion County schools will receive $35,541.54 more in foundation money from the state in 1954, county superintendent of schools D. T. Mills said today.

The foundation money, used to pay school operating expenses, was increased this year when the last General Assembly upped the amount paid by the state for each school pupil. Payments for the first quarter of 1954 already have been made, Mills said.

A total of $270,654.05 has been granted to the 12 schools in Marion County. Last year's total for the same schools was $235,112.51. The amount for each school is arrived at by figuring each school district's tax deuplicate, transportation needs and enrollment.

Foundation money for each school is as follows: Caledonia, $29,677.55; Claridon, $34,065.33; Grand Prairie, $5,591.08; Green Camp $10,244.23; LaRue, $35,415.37; Meeker, $14,774.33; Morral, $17,749.34; New Bloomington, $19,280.17; Pleasant, $27,381.44; Prospect, $40,833.56; Tully, $19,356.74; Waldo, $16,099.10.

Marion Local and Scott school districts received no money since there are no schools located in their districts.

Rhodes

ments about the institution.

Delaware Prosecuting Attorney Clyde Lewis said Daniel and his wife served as cottage parents of Beech Cottage at the girls' industrial school, and that they resided there.

Calls for Probe

Rhodes called for an investigation after he said he had discovered five inmates from 13 to 16 years old in solitary confinement cells. He said he made the visit on complaint of Lt. Gov. John W. Brown, a former state highway patrolman, about conditions there.

Rhodes said he questioned witnesses and said, "From these witnesses I received statements, some in the form of affidavits, showing conclusively that there is reasonable grounds to believe that certain statutory crimes have been committed at the Girls' Industrial School."

The information, he said, included copies of letters from a married Ohio State university graduate student to a 15-year-old paroled inmate formerly under his supervision as a "cottage parent" at the institution. Cottage parents have charge of 20 to 30 girls at the Delaware school, he explained.

'No Inhuman Treatment'

Robison said he knew "that there is no inhuman treatment of any girls" at the school. He said he believed that since the institution's superintendent, Mrs. Evelyn R. Ethell of Findlay, had been in charge since Feb. 1, 1950, "I believe she has made every effort to improve conditions at that institution. He continued:

"When she became superintendent there was some evidence that there was too much corporal punishment at the school. This has been abolished. However, it should be remembered that the girls are sent to that institution by the juvenile courts because they have committed acts of delinquency . . . reluctantly it has been necessary to take extraordinary security measures.

"These extraordinary security measures have included placing girls in security rooms. These security rooms have been used by all superintendents for years. Out of 350 girls only four were in rooms of extraordinary security on Saturday. It can thus be seen that the security rooms are used only in extreme situations."

NEVER TOO LATE

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UP)—Discouraged authors can take heart from a Yale University announcement that it is publishing a book written by Edward Hake 350 years ago. The manuscript, dealing with questions of government, was found by a Yale librarian in the British Museum 10 years ago.

Weather

have made driving hazardous, the patrol reports. Ice has begun to form on the roads.

Streets in the downtown Marion area were almost deserted in midmorning, and pedestrians who were forced by the needs of their occupations to venture out battled the elements with extreme difficulty.

Condition of the county roads and state highways was good up until the storm hit the area, superintendents of the county and state highway departments reported. Both departments are standing by with equipment ready in case the snow continues and shows signs of reaching the three to five-inch depth forecast for today.

County schools reopened for classes this morning but New Bloomington began sending boys and girls home about 10:30 this morning during the height of the storm.

Flights Cancelled

Officials of Lake Central Airlines at the Marion Municipal Airport reported all flights into Marion had been cancelled. They said the wind there was blowing from 35 to 40 miles an hour, with gusts up to 50.

No sooner had the storm hit today than city police began receiving calls that tree limbs were being blown down and power lines damaged. By 10:30 a.m., limbs were reported down in the 300 block on Avondale Ave., 400 block on Cherry St., near the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks on Bellefontaine Ave., the 500 block on Mt. Vernon Ave., the 500 block on Delaware Ave., at Seffner and E. Church St. and in the 100 block on S. Vine St. Power was reported off on Avondale Ave. and it was believed the falling tree limb may have damaged some of the power lines.

Several television antennas were reported blown from house tops in various places in the city this morning during the high wind.

Precaution Taken

Safety - Service Director Ralph Forrest took immediate steps to keep streets clear of snow and ice. He said salt and cinder spreading trucks were ordered out shortly after 10 a.m. and snow plows were standing by if needed.

One city patrolman reported that the winds were so strong about 9:30 that they buffeted a police car about a good bit and at one particularly slippery place moved the car sideways about six inches.

More snow flurries and colder is the forecast for tonight, with a low temperature of about 12 expected. Thursday is to be rather cloudy and cold with snow flurries.

The high reading in Marion yesterday was 43 and about 11 o'clock today it was 20. This was four degrees higher than a low of 16 which occurred at the start of the storm this morning.

Hardest Storm In 15 Years Hits Chicago Area

By The Associated Press

A blustery storm spread a belt of deep snow from St. Louis to the Great Lakes Wednesday and left Chicago buried under a paralyzing 12-inch blanket.

The storm, worst in Chicago in 15 years, left hundreds of cars stalled on the city's lake front drives and side streets and blocked main highways south of the city.

The storm spread eastward and the U.S. Weather Bureau in Chicago issued a special warning of heavy snow for lower Michigan.

Arctic air chilled the northern and central Rockies, the Great Plains, the extreme upper Mississippi Valley and the northern Great Lakes region the colder air was spreading eastward into the midwest.

Laramie, Wyo., reported -16 de- Minot, N.D. -9 and Dickinson, N.D. -7.

Sub-zero temperatures also were reported in Colorado, Montana and Nebraska.
